Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I cannot say whether this bill is based upon the appropriation to carry out the recommendations of the Post War Planning Commission, but again I would say that this is a part of the over-all plan of the Governor to take care of the surplus appropriation.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, can the gentleman tell me whether he knows whether the Post War Planning Commission have any plans?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I imagine that the Post War Planning Commission has plans. Definitely this bill sets up a certain amount of money for a certain type of work that was recommended by the Governor. I have not seen and I have not been particularly concerned so far as these bills go as to whether they were part of the plans of the Post War Planning Commission or not. They were recommendations made in the Governor's message to carry out the program.

Mr. COHEN. I thank the gentleman. There is no objection to section one.

The first section was agreed to.

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Lichtenwalter.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. The reading of Section 2 indicates to me that it is money appropriated for the purpose of an institutional program under the Department of Welfare and gives the Department of Property and Supplies the right of fixing what is to be expended, including the right of fixing what is to be expended when, where and why, and that with the approval of the Governor. Am I right in that understanding?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. That is correct, and that is the recommendation of the Department of Welfare.

Mr. COHEN. And has that been the usual procedure in the past on institutional programs to have the Department of Property and Supplies given veto power over the Department of Welfare or any other department?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. No, it is not, Mr. Speaker, and I would not say that this would be an exact veto power by the Department of Property and Supplies.

Mr. COHEN. Can the gentleman deny that if the Welfare Department were to determine to build a penitentiary at Reading, Pennsylvania, to expend two million dollars, that that determination could be overruled or amended or revised either upwards or downwards by the Department of Property and Supplies, and would then be in position to be approved or disapproved by the Governor?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I would say that is not so, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. Can the gentleman tell me why the Department of Property and Supplies has to be in the picture at all?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I would say, Mr. Speaker, that the Department of Property and Supplies has to be in the picture because you are appropriating, I would say, a certain sum of money to carry on the work of building new institutions, penal institutions and other institutions for that department. Certainly if you are appropriating this money to the Department of Property and Supplies it would just take the recommendation of the Department of Welfare and we might have the entire amount of the appropriation expended at one particular place, and maybe in excess of the amount appropriated under this bill. Therefore, I think it is just a matter of control.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know of any other instances where the Department of Property and Supplies has the right to determine

> The amount of the foregoing appropriation to be expended for or upon any project for any particular institution shall be determined with the approval of the Governor by the Department of Property and Supplies after recommendation by the Department of Welfare.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Yes, Mr. Speaker, I would say in many instances we have so appropriated. I can think of an instance that happened very recently in my own county, where the Fish Commission was to purchase the Trexler hatchery, and the amount of money involved was determined by the Department of Property and Supplies. I believe that has been the practice over many years.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the gentleman whether this bill is the beginning of a program of institutional building and maintenance under the Department of Welfare that we intend and hope will continue for the next several years?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. It is, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. Will the gentleman tell me whether I am correct or not when I urged that the so-called Post War Planning Commission have some plans on this?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I know of no such plans. I understand it is the Governor's program. The bill has passed the Senate, and I believe it will be up for consideration in the House before long. It is a program instituted entirely by the Governor and he has appointed a committee to study this problem. I have no diagram of any Post War Planning Commission plans.

Mr. COHEN. Will the gentleman tell me whether there is a Post War Planning Commission?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I think the gentleman is well aware that there is a Post War Planning Commission, and I think the gentleman knows it because he knows there is a Housing program.

Mr. COHEN. Will the gentleman tell me where they are hiding?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. For the information of the gentleman, I believe when we started this session they had to move. They were on "E" floor somewhere in the center of the capitol building and had to move over to the north wing due to the requirements of the Senate, because even the Post War Planning Commission could not hamper the operations of the efficient Senate of Pennsylvania.

Mr. COHEN. It is my opinion, Mr. Speaker, that they probably will not hinder or hamper the work of the Senate or of anybody in Pennsylvania if they keep hiding where they are.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, in connection with all of these appropriation bills I desire for the purposes of the record to enter a protest, a general dissent. We are making history, legislative history and abandoning the traditions of many, many years as to legislative practice if we proceed upon the course that those in command have evidently determined we shall pursue.

You hear much about what His Excellency the Governor has planned. We hear much about what a Planning Commission is supposed to have planned. We hear much about the rights to be exercised by departments, but nowhere in the midst of all this planning do I hear mention of the Legislature. This program to which this House is evidently committed involves the abdication of Legislative function. There was a time when this Legislature said to the departments, "This much you shall spend for this particular purpose," and then it said to the Governor, "This much you shall spend for this particular purpose." Now we hand over to the Department of Health ten or twelve or thirteen million dollars, a blank check beyond the control of this House, and we hand over to the Department of Forestry a blank check involving millions, and in the expenditure of which this House has no voice and will have no voice.

At this late period in the session we cannot on our side draw a program presenting a legislative blueprint of how the state money should be spent, but I am saying to you gentlemen, that if you accept these bills as a precedent you are passing your legislative powers into the hands of the Departmentts, and you might as well meet here with a rubber stamp in the beginning of the session and vote His Excellency the Governor five hundred million dollars to spend as he pleases.

I hear in this House too these words, "You must be loyal to the administration." And I am asking you vested with the legislative power, who is and what is the administration if you are not, and whether there is any implied obligation on the part of Legislators to be more loyal to a Department or to the Governor than there is on the part of the Department or Governor to be loyal to the wishes and desires of this Legislative body?

I am tired and weary of the spectacle presented when committees crawl under the table with a program because some one in the Department objected to a bill, and because somebody from the Department objected to the bill and it never comes out. This legislative program represents the power of the Departments and the bureaus at their zenith. Never before in the history of Pennsylvania have we passed to them un-numbered millions to spend as they please.

Now, gentlemen, I want it understood that that is your program; it is not our program. We do not agree to the theory, and we file our protest as a matter of record.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, to be very brief in reply to the gentleman, I did not know that we were going to discuss this program at this time when these bills were on second reading. I thought that they would probably be discussed on third reading and final passage.

I will admit that we are probably establishing a new precedent, but after all, Mr. Speaker, it is a precedent almost unheard after the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania incurred during the Earle administration a debt of seventy-one million dollars which through economy was paid off during the Republican administration, and that surplus having increased to an amount that certainly has not been heard of in Pennsylvania for many years. We are meeting in this Legislative session during abnormal times. We find the world today in trying times and circumstances, and therefore, Mr. Speaker, it becomes necessary to do some of the things that we would probably normally not have to do if there were available all the materials, all the labor, all the things needed at the various places in Pennsylvania under construction that would use this money. Certainly then it would not be necessary to appropriate this money for these various purposes which are enumerated in the bill, so that the Departments with the approval of the Department of Property and Supplies, the approval of the Governor, may construct and do certain things with this money. Therefore, I see no great alarm. I feel that the men who have accumulated this surplus, the leaders, who have wisely guided the destiny of this Commonwealth certainly can be trusted to see that this money is expended for the welfare of the entire citizenry of this Commonwealth.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The third section and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

PARLIMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of Parlimentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. FLEMING. House Bill 326 and House Bill 328 were introduced jointly by Mr. Stuart and myself; will the fact that Mr. Stuart's name is mispelled on the white copies of the bill in any way affect the validity of the bills when they are finally enacted?

The SPEAKER. It will not affect the validity of the act, because it does not become a part of the act.

Mr. FLEMING. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The first section and title were separately read and agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Lichtenwalter.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lehigh permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. With respect to Senate Bill 538, Printer's No. 274, and on the following page of the calendar, Senate Bill 539, Printer's No. 275, will the gentleman tell me if he has any knowledge as to whether there was any bipartisian conference or agreement with the respect to the changes in the military ballot law proposed by these two bills?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I know of none, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. I ask the gentleman in view of the fact that all militiary voting laws in Pennsylvania were drawn after a bi-partisan conference and agreement, bi-partisan sponsership and unanimous vote both in the special session last year and the regular session this year, whether or not these two bills could not be held until we see whether or not some bi-partisan cooperation and amity could be reached and arrived at?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I see no reason for that. These bills have passed the Senate, why they should be held up now, when they can be discussed on third reading unless there are amendments the gentleman wishes to offer.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I am through with my interrogation.

I would like to say that the amendments provided by these two bills are amendments to problems which were discussed at the Legislative-Politicians-Governors conference last year and even this year, and there were some reasons for the provisions in the bill. Probably they are one hundred per cent all right but I suspect that we ought to withhold action on them inasmuch as we are going to be here another week, and it takes only two days to pass them. We can have a conference and clear up any differences if any exist—and I know not whether they do, but I think we ought to have all the militiary voting legislation handled by the precedent established that we have set up and to which I have already referred.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr Speaker, I do not mind holding the bill on third reading, but I know that the gentleman from Philadelphia has graciously sat around and been a party to many bi-partisans conferences around the table on Mondays with the Democratic members on the part of the Senate, working out of the details of militiary balloting, and that certainly I believe would have been the time to bring up any objections to be filed. Certainly I think that would have been the proper time. These bills you know originated in the Senate, and it would be a matter for bi-partisan agreement.

Mr. COHEN. I ask then if the gentleman will agree that we pass them on second reading and that on Monday we take up the two bills and discuss them?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. That is certainly agreeable.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 539, entitled:

An Act to amend Section nine of the Act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-four (Act No. 1) entitled "A supplement to the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled 'An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections'" further regulating the disposition of military files

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 631, entitled:

An Act to further amend section one thousand eleven of the act, approved the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 565) entitled "An act relating to the powers and duties of the Department of Banking and the Secretary of Banking in exercising supervision over, and taking possession of and conducting or liquidating the business and property of, corporations, associations, and persons receiving deposits or otherwise transacting a banking business, corporations acting as fiduciaries, and building and loan associations; providing for the payment of the expenses of the Department of Banking by supervised corporations, associations, or persons, and appropriating the Banking Department Fund; authorizing the Department of Banking, under certain circumstances, to examine corporations, associations, or persons affiliated, or having business transactions with supervised corporations, associations or persons; authoriziing appeals to the Supreme Court, and prescribing and limiting the powers and duties of certain other courts and their prothonotaries, registers of wills, recorders of deeds, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; authorizing certain local public officers and State departments to collect fees for services rendered under this act; providing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts," by providing that hereafter any claim for the amount of any deficiency in the funds, property or investments of an estate of which the institution was fiduciary or any surcharge with respect to such estate shall have the same rank and priority upon liquidation by the secretary as receiver as given to deposits and other claims enumerated in the third category set forth in said section.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 663, entitled:

An Act to further amend section one of the act, approved the fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1625), entitled "An act providing for the creation, maintenance and operation of a county employes' retirement system in counties of the third, class; and imposing certain charges on counties," defining "County Employe" to include persons employed by independent poor districts.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 693, entitled:

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, this is the same bill which we considered last week and which places upon the taxing powers of the City of Pittsburgh a ceiling on the only source of revenue which the city has. I am well aware that last week, or the week previous we passed a bill in this House giving City Council other forms of revenue, and I am also aware that in that bill there was a provision that the provisions of that act would expire and the power would be nonexistant after October 15th.

I do not wish to repeat all of the remarks I made last week except to summarize, that it appears to me that it is poor legislative policy to freeze the only source of revenue of the second largest city in our state until some form of additional revenue is prepared to take up the slack in event of any emergency.

Here we are with absolutely no assurance as to what will happen to the so-called Sterling enactment of last week, since it is now in the Senate. It is in the Committee, and the dying days of the session are here. It seems to me very foolish to consider this bill except in the light of existing law, and under existing law this bill is very vicious, it is very bad, it is very poor economics for a city the size of Pittsburgh.

I would like to go one step further and point out this fact, assuming that both bills became the law of this state, the Sterling Act with its broadened tax base and taxing powers will expire on October 15th, so that the safety valve which you are placing or giving to Council of Pittsburgh will be non existant thereafter, but this companion measure they will have to live with for ever after, at least they will have to live with it until the session of 1947. Therefore, from October 15, 1945 until the session of 1947 the City of Pittsburgh will be ham strung so far as its financial policy is concerned. That I think is very clear. One measure is a temporary measure and this is a permanent measure. I ask the Members of the House if they think that is a sound tax problem.

The City of Pittsburgh has had difficulties financially since 1935, and I am well aware that it has been said on this floor that a change of administration might be anticipated since an election is to be held. I might point out to the proponents of this bill that it may very likely be a boomerang to any change of administration, because the hands that you are trying to tie today may be your hands tomorrow. Therefore, I ask the Members of the House to vote down this bill.

Mr. McNAIR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Laughner permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LAUGHNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McNAIR. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire whether the gentleman has considered amendments and changes suggested by their candidate for mayor in the recent issue of yesterday's Pittsburgh Press.

Mr. LAUGHNER. I did not hear the question, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McNAIR. I would like to inquire whether the gentleman has considered the amendments and changes suggested by the candidate for mayor in yesterday's Pittsburgh Press.

Mr. LAUGHNER. I have not considered it, Mr. Speaker, and I might say to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McNair, that I am not interested one way or another whether or not the city of Pittsburgh has a Democratic or a Republican administration; I still think that it is a good bill and we should limit the taxes so that the home owner will not have to pay any more than he has in the past.

Mr. McNAIR. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that the Chairman of our Pittsburgh governing body, the Committee on Second Class Cities, notified us that they are going to elect a mayor of Pittsburgh?

Mr. LAUGHNER. I don't know whether the chairman of the delegattion or the governing body, as the gentleman calls it, has notified him of anything or not.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. FLEMING. The gentleman is not speaking on the bill. He is discussing a statement that I made with no reference to this bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman must confine himself to the question before the House.

Mr. McNAIR. I will do so. First I want to thank the sponsor of the bill.

I desire to state that this bill limits the tax on land to twenty-five mills and the tax on buildings to twelve and one-half mills. The suggestion made in the Pittsburgh Press is that it be changed to limit the tax on land to twenty mills and the tax on buildings to ten mills. Now, if that is their plan and their idea it seems to me now is the time to adopt it, but I would just mention in passing that if you give the large land owners downtown a cut of five mills and the small home owners only get a cut of two and one-half mills, when you say this bill benefits the small home owner in Pittsburgh it is a mistaken idea, because the small home owner would get very little benefit.

Furthermore whatever taxes are levied to make up the difference would be paid by the small home owner and not the land owner downtown.

Mr. LAUGHNER. Mr. Speaker, I find that I must differ with the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McNair, when he says that large land owners will be the only ones to benefit. After all, this is a limit on the millage, and the millage is set on all properties, whether it be large properties or small home owners.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I would just like to call to the attention of the Members of the House that in 1933 and 1934—and I believe I am not mistaken, that was the year that the gentleman from Allegheny took office as Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh, the millage at that time was 20.6 and 10.3.

Since that time it has been going up until it has reached the present point of twenty-five and twelve and a half. It is my opinion that we have gone far enough in the City of Pittsburgh in taxing the property owners. As you all know, we have passed a bill to give the City of Pittsburgh power to tax other things, and I believe that we should save the home owners. The City of Pittsburgh has been complaining of late that people have been moving out of the city proper and going to the outlying districts. It is my opinion that the high taxes in Pittsburgh are one reason for that, and I believe this would be a benefit to the City of Pittsburgh, because more people will buy homes and live in the city proper.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LAUGHNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Did I hear the gentleman say that we in the City of Pittsburgh have very high taxes?

Mr. LAUGHNER. I said the City of Pittsburgh had high taxes.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. What part of the city does the gentleman live in?

Mr. LAUGHNER. I do not live in the city, but my constituents, or a great part of them do live in the city, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Does the gentleman think a bill of this nature would help lower the taxes in the city?

Mr. LAUGHNER. I do not know that it will lower the taxes, but if it is passed it surely will put a limit on the millage. That is what the bill desires to do.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Does the gentleman have any idea how we could put an amendment on it to help us in the boroughs and townships too.

Mr. LAUGHNER. Mr. Speaker, I even have a bill in committee to freeze the limit in the county of Allegheny.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Does the gentleman think that he could get that bill out?

Mr. LAUGHNER. I do not think that I can, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Is it in the same Committee that this one was in?

Mr. LAUGHNER. I do not think that it is, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Does the gentleman have any idea what the number is? Maybe I could help get it out.

Mr. LAUGHNER. I do not, but I would appreciate any help.

Mr. McNAIR. Mr. Speaker, I do not desire to continue this discussion but I might suggest that those Members from Allegheny County who do not live in Pittsburgh are not interested in whether we in Pittsburgh have police protection, fire protection, sewage, garbage and all the other services that we need. Of course they can limit our revenues, but we must have these services, and I ask them how can the city furnish these services when we have no taxes.

As for relieving the small home owner, if we do limit the taxes on land and buildings and place a tax on washing machines, radios, and so forth, how do we get any relief from these bills? The small home owner will still have to pay, and the home owner will get no relief under these bills.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Messrs. Baker, Leonard and O'Donnell asked for a verification of the roll.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WORLEY. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Finnerty, to explain the bill.

Mr. FINNERTY. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 841, Printer's No. 618, is an amendment that would amend the present beautician law, which it amends on page 2, Section 13, line 22. The amendment is to display

> Any price advertising for beauty services in or upon any part of the premises of a beauty shop in such a manner that such advertising shall be visible from the outside of the beauty shop.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment does not stop a beauty parlor from advertising. This amendment is at present a part of the law governing barber shops and these amendments have been in that law since 1937.

Right of municipality to regulate. Nothing contained in the act to which this is an amendment shall be construed as prohibiting any municipality from adopting appropriate ordinances not inconsistent with the provisions of this act for the rules and regulations adopted thereunder as may be deemed necessary to promote the public health and safety and regulate the conduct of beauty shops and beauty schools.

Mr. Speaker, this amendment has been a part of the barber law since 1921. Now, the City of Philadelphia has taken advantage of this part of the barber law and has taken over the inspection of barber shops. They have done a very good job in keeping the barber shops in a sanitary condition, and those are the two amendments and the only amendments that are in this bill and both of these amendments are approved by the Department of Public Instruction.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—2

Bentley, Chervenak.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1266, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Pennsylvania Post-War Planning Commission, whenever funds are available, to allocate funds to the various counties or their agencies for certain post-war projects upon the matching of such allocations by the counties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen has very much to say about this bill.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader, if I may, if the rules of the House will permit me and if the Majority Leader can speak to me from his high position, or does he want me to sit next to him?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. And use the same "mike"?

Mr. COHEN. Could be. I should like to ask the gentleman from Lehigh whether I can believe my eyes. It says in the title of the act "Pennsylvania Post War Planning Commission." It seems to me Mr. Speaker, that we have found out at last that such a Commission exists.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. I would refer the gentleman from Philadelphia to the gentleman from Berks, Mr. McAtee.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I further ask the gentleman in regard to Section 1 of the act which says

> The Pennsylvania Post War Planning Commission is hereby authorized whenever the funds therefor shall be made available by appropriation to allocate such funds to the various counties or to duly authorized agencies thereof for the purpose of carrying out as post-war projects any public works or improvement program which shall be for the improvement . . .

Mr. Speaker, may I ask what funds?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would suggest that you ask the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Elk tell me what funds are referred to in this bill that will be allocated?

Mr. SORG. Whatever funds might have become available.

Mr. COHEN. To whom, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. SORG. To the Pennsylvania Post War Planning Commission.

Mr. COHEN. For what, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, for whatever the counties may desire to do.

Mr. COHEN. When, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. SORG. These questions are coming pretty fast, Mr. Speaker. Whenever they so desire after the passage of this measure.

Mr. COHEN. I should ask why, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman wants me to say "I don't know."

Mr. COHEN. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, earlier in the day we had some interrogation and developed some facts about something like forty some odd millions of dollars to be spent for some institutions, welfare projects, reforestation and stream clearance. I remember away back in October 1944 hearing the Governor of the Commonwealth speaking at a dinner in Philadelphia outlining a post-war planning program for Pennsylvania, and I heard subsequent to the election of that year, and I think in the Governor's message early this year an outline of the allocation of many millions of dollars for post war projects in Pennsylvania. Today when I saw a bill seeking to put into effect a part of the Governor's program for post-war work in Pennsylvania, I was told that this was the Governor's program and not the Post War Planning Commission's program. Now, Mr. Speaker, if there is a Post War Planning Commission I think it is high time that we know where it is, what it has done and when does it expect to tell us what they plan for Pennsylvania. It is all very well for the Governor to tell us that this money is to be spent for post war projects, and on this side of the House by our votes we have indicated that we are in favor of allocating these funds for these post war projects. We are not quite in accord with the idea of taking directions under a false label. If the administration will tell us that this is the Governor's program as undertaken by the various Departments of Pennsylvania, we are satisfied for the program to go on, but if we are to be told in the public press and public pronouncements and elsewhere that this is a Post War Planning Commission program, then they should stand up and tell us what their program is, so that if at any time there is blame to be placed we will know who advocated the program and we will know who is to take the responsibility. Of course, the Governor takes responsibility for everything. If any matter goes wrong he gets blamed for it; if the commission goes wrong he gets blamed for that, and if we go wrong he gets blamed for that, and so it is no answer to say that the Governor takes the blame. You see, Mr. Speaker, we have turned over to the Post War Planning Commission the right to get a program going in Pennsylvania which we are told in the next ten years indicates a possible expenditure of over one billion dollars, and in this session perhaps we might allocate some one hundred million dollars or more of that money, and we shall commit ourselves to the beginning of a program that in the next biennium and the bienniums hereafter we will have to allocate and appropriate more money to complete work well begun. If that is what is to happen, let us know about it, but let us not say that a program is here, and no one knows, if anything goes wrong except the Post War Planning Commission, the only one that will admit its parentage.

I am afraid, Mr. Speaker, that there is no such a thing as a Post War Planning Commission. If there is not, we ought not to give them any money. If there is a Commission in fact and it is working let them come in and tell us now, today or tomorrow or if necessary at a special session or if necessary wait here another month, but whey don't they come into the House and Senate and tell us what their program is?

I do not want to go through a lot of detailed information that I have but may I suggest an instance to you. Last week, or rather Monday night of this week, the House unanimously voted for a Post War Housing program in Pennsylvania, and this Post War Housing program was approved unanimously, which indicates our good faith to go along on something which only the newspapers tell us was a product of the Post War Planning Commission. We suspected before the big stuff hit us we would know more about it officially.

The Post War Planning Commission's program on housing, if you want to know the truth, was a program that was gotten together originally by the influence and suggestion of Mayor Barney Samuels of Philadelphia and so reported in the press towards the end of last year, taken up by one of the members of the commission, Mr. Hopkinson of Philadelphia, at whose suggestion, I presume, the Post War Planning Commission allocated twenty-five thousand dollars of our money to a group of experts to study a post-war planning program for Pennsylvania. Of the twenty-five thousand dollars they spent twenty thousand dollars and what they gave us was four bills which the Legislative Reference Bureau could have prepared for us in three days because the bills were centered mostly upon the Act of 1937 passed by the House and Senate and the amendment to the Insurance Law of 1923. They spent twenty thousand dollars for what I would have done for $10 on the line because it was only a question of putting some amendments into already existing law. The amazing thing, Mr. Speaker, is that the Post War Planning Commission does not have any other program, any alternative program for housing in Pennsylvania, if for any reason the Senate refuses to go along on the four bills passed by this House.

When you spend twenty-five thousand dollars for a housing program it seems to me you ought to be able to make your first best offer and be ready for the second best offer, but the Planning Commission has no such offer because they never made a study. They paid twenty thousand dollars to get four bills drafted which we corrected in the House, and in case you are not quite certain of that fact then I refer you to the Department of Commerce. The Department of Commerce will tell you that its Planning Board under the able work of Frank Pitkin, who in my estimation is one of the best of the planners we have in Pennsylvania, has been making a housing study.

Their housing study is available to the Post War Planning Commission, but I have yet to learn whether the Post War Planning Commission asked Mr. Pitkin or the Department of Commerce for their help. If they did they did a smart thing, but if, as the Executive Director states in his budget here that they have no alternative program, that suggests that either they ignored Mr. Pitkin or the Department of Commerce or just that they never asked—I do not know. This is just one instance of the many things I could read to you by the page of the faults and the defects in the Post War Planning Commission.

A couple of weeks ago I listened rather carefully to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, for whom I have the greatest respect for his intimate and deep knowledge of government wheels that turn and mesh and makes things go around in Harrisburg. It seems to me that perhaps he was hitting the right note when he suggested, to my mind at least, that we were spending money for a Post War Planning Commission that has not planned, that we have spent a lot of money and we intend to spend a lot of money for its administrative purposes, and on its word, or not on its word, depending upon whether we can find them or cannot find them, to spend over the next ten years possibly one billion dollars without any more information to the Members of the House that we have no bills for and we have no alternative plans. We do not know where the plans are because they have not been shown to us. "Take what we give you" without anybody accepting the responsibility or the absolute sponsorship of these measures. Perhaps they are afraid to tell us what they have done, and perhaps what the gentleman from Delaware said two weeks ago should be followed, that Members of the House ought to be on that Commission, that we ought to put our legislative brains together with their civic brains and get a workmanlike job and a comprehensive job that we can turn to in a book and say "There are the plans, this is what we are going to do and this is what it is going to cost".

I say to you, Mr. Speaker, that House Bill 1266 provides that they may allocate funds where they have been appropriated, and as the interrogation has suggested, without knowing why or when or where—nobody knows. We passed a bill allocating one million dollars not so long ago to be used for the help of surveyors and draftsmen and engineers of local communities in their postwar projects. But has our Post War Planning Commission told us whether any community or municipality has given its plan consideration and taken advantage of the suggestions or directions, or are we going to have that one million dollars lying around there for the County Commissioners to come along and allocate to themselves on the basis of population, or shall it be on the basis of what plans of what ideas they have, or is it going to be allocated on the basis of "You have done your work well, here is your money for your work." Are we giving a blank check to somebody somewhere? Are we just going to pass bills, blindly appropriating millions and millions of dollars and say "Do it that way because now we have the money".

It occurs to me, Mr. Speaker that the only reason some people criticize the New Deal for spending a lot of money was because they had none of their own to spend, and now that they have got it to spend they think that the New Deal is fine, a fine thing to spend it, to give a blank check, but do not tell the Legislature how you are going to do it or why, because the Director of the Post War Planning Commission at the public hearing said, "We have projected plans to spend one billion dollars over ten years, but where you get the money I don't know; it is your job, you levy the taxes. You raise the money, these are the plans." If that is the way it is, Mr. Speaker, let us go slow. If that is the way it is let us act now. If the majority party does not want to act it is perfectly O. K. There are one hundred and seven votes down the line on its passage.

The position on this side is that we will go along with all these corrections and all these changes, that we will go along with all the things that will aid the Commonwealth's physical plant or anything that will do the Government plant good, but we are protesting now the loose and unworkmanlike and unstatesmanlike method of approaching what is perhaps one of the great problems in Pennsylvania, and which over the years might become its most difficult problem, and for which somebody some day is going to take an awful lot of criticism. Five years from now you may criticize Governor Martin for it and he is supposed to take the blame; he has broad shoulders and he can stand it, but he won't be Governor then and some other Governor might get blamed and he will say, "It is not my fault, Governor Martin did it." The same thing applies to any party in power, they may get blamed for it, and if you think you can shake it off, go ahead, but I think if we are going to have the responsibility in the future we ought to ask the questions now.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Wood, the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. NORMAN WOOD. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether within his knowledge as chairman of the Appropriations Committee there has been any appropriation of funds which may be used for allocation to counties to match funds which they might have for a post-war program?

Mr. NORMAN WOOD. Mr. Speaker, to the best of my knowledge there has not been.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair requests the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Lloyd H. Wood, to preside.

MR. LLOYD H. WOOD IN THE CHAIR

Mr. TURNER. That is all, I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I regret that I did not hear all of the discussion by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen, on the subject, but as he referred to some remarks which I had made previously, I think the House knows that I have a rather firm conviction that we are not proceeding in the proper way to set up a post-war program and to allocate funds. Nevertheless, I can see no reason for giving to the Post War Planning Commission power whenever funds are available to allocate funds to the various counties and agencies for such post-war projects upon the matching of allocations by the county, if there is no appropriation for that purpose. I believe that if we had a vast fund of money that we could use for post-war planning projects and that we thereby might be able to set up a definite program by which the Legislature would say, for instance, "We think that stream clearance is the number one program in Pennsylvania and we will set aside fifty million dollars to help the municipalities or to match the funds raised by the municipalities," or if we say that we believe that there are certain congested traffic situations which we would match, or if we would say that a number of other things that you could think of that we might match the funds that the municipality might have, that in the experience of the last fifteen years that is probably the proper way to approach it. Certainly the Legislature ought to have some control over the kind of program that is going to be instituted, and the amount of money which this session of the Legislature could appropriate would be infinitesimal, I am certain, in spite of the large surplus we have and it would hardly do any good. Therefore, we might find all kinds of projects which were instituted by counties; some of them might be sewage projects, some of them might be playgrounds, some of them might be some other things, but there would be no real plan for the determination of the kind of projects we are going to have. For that reason I feel that this bill should not be passed, because it would be placing on the statute books a surplusage of power to the Post War Planning Commission that they cannot hope to exercise in the next two years, and if we want to do this at the time that we have the money to allocate it, let us set it up at that time.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to reply to the gentleman from Philadelphia. I believe that as far as this bill is concerned it is just a deep hope of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. McAtee, that sometime in the future there might be some funds available that he could call upon, and felt that the Post War Planning Commission might be the agency to disburse those funds. I say, Mr. Speaker, it it just a deep hope, and I believe this bill is the personal ambition of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. McAtee, but I also know that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Cohen, has had a bulging briefcase and a bitter phobia on the Post War Planning Commission, as was revealed here in the discussion this afternoon, and of course when he saw the words "Post War Planning Commission" I knew that his bulging briefcase would be opened and that we would have his report.

But I do want to keep the record clear, Mr. Speaker, that the millions of dollars of appropriations which we are speaking of that are being carried forth in the legislation now on the calendar is no part of the Post War Planning Commission's plan or program. That is the program of the Governor as recommended in his message to be carried out by the departments directly under his control in the expenditures for these various institutions. The expenditures that are to be made from these moneys so appropriated by any Department must first have his approval. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, let us not become confused and talk about the millions of dollars which we are appropriating in these bills as part of the Governor's program with the program of the Post War Planning Commission.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, my attention has just been called to the fact that we passed a bill providing one million dollars to be allocated by the Post War Planning Commission for plans. As I recall, I think the plan is to pay fifty per cent of the costs of the plans of municipalities in the Post War Program. Therefore it is said that this merely co-ordinates—that is not the word I want to use—it dovetails with the other measures.

As I said, understand that this dovetails. It is my understanding that the other bill was a specific allocation of one million dollars to the Post War Planning Commission, with a definite direction that that was to be used in paying part of the expenses of the cost of programs or plans. I followed that very closely because we are very deeply interested in my county; we are planning some sewage disposal plants and our small municipalities are very much interested in that fund. I do not believe that this therefore has anything to do with the other measures, but in order that we may be safe, I would move that House Bill 1256 be placed upon the final passage postponed calendar.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1282, as follows:

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 66, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Forests and Waters for improvement and development of the Ports of Philadelphia Chester Pittsburgh and Erie

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to the Department of Forests and Waters for the improvement and development of the Ports of Philadelphia Chester Pittsburgh and Erie

Section 2 The amounts to be allocated to each port shall be recommended by the Secretary of Forests and Waters and approved by the Governor

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to point out to the gentlemen on the other side, especially the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Lichtenwalter, that we are appropriating one million dollars for the improvement of four ports in Pennsylvania. I think that everybody in the House might be interested to know that the "No-it-is-here-and-now-it-is-not here" Post War Planning Commission is spending some money to make a study of these ports, which I hope is true, but if it is not, it is a good idea anyway.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—2

Bentley, Chervenak,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1235, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Labor and Industry for the payment of certain claims against the Commonwealth and that department arising out of professional services rendered by physicians in workmen's compensation cases.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Centre permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FROST. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the sponsor of the bill to explain the bill? May I ask the gentleman what the purpose of the bill is and what they are paying for?

Mr. FROST. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of the bill is to pay for professional medical services in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in Workmen's Compensation as a medical inspector, in the amount of $1,351.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman explain what the services were that were rendered.

Mr. FROST. Mr. Speaker, the services were for the inspection of claims for the Department of Workmen's Compensation which were requested. This man was appointed by the Workmen's Compensation Fund as an inspector to inspect their claims when he was called upon to do so.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman if this is the regular procedure, if they do this year in and year out.

Mr. FROST. No, Mr. Speaker, these services were rendered some years ago, and it is the only method for the collection of a just bill.

I might further inform the gentleman that I took the matter up with Mr. Delaney in the Justice Department. He went through the record and claims that this is a just and fair bill that should be paid.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman explain the time this work was done and what was the nature of the work that was done?

Mr. FROST. I do not have the exact time, Mr. Speaker. The work was done years ago, I believe under the Pinchot administration. The work was done at the request of the Workmen's Compensation Board in cases that they wanted inspections made on, and verified as to claims.

Mr. LOVETT. I want to thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I certainly feel myself that I do not know whether to oppose this bill or vote for it and I do not think any other Member of the House knows. It seems to be a mystery to some extent as to how it happened and why we have to pay this bill. It has been a long number of years back, and I thought perhaps the statute of limitations might have excused us from the payment of these bills.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Has the gentleman from Westmoreland a remedy in mind?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I'm just getting a few hints from some of my friends here, that this may open up a practice where doctors could come in and be paid for services rendered back some years ago, and so on and so forth, and the more I hear from my friends here the more I think that we should at least pass this bill over until we find out something about it

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. LOVETT. I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Baker, be satisfied if the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee ascertains from the Department of Labor and Industry the status of this claim and reports it to the House? I believe he could do so tomorrow, and if this is a just claim we want to pay it. I do not think that the gentleman from Allegheny would object to letting the bill go over until we get a report from the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

Mr. BAKER. I will agree, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FROST. The procedure that Mr. Andrews has suggested is perfectly satisfactory to me as the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland withdraw his motion to place this bill on the final passage postponed calendar?

Mr. LOVETT. I shall, Mr. Speaker, provided the bill be passed over.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Allegheny withdraw his request for a roll call?

Mr. BAKER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair thanks both gentlemen.

If there is no objection the Chair withdraws its decision that the bill was agreed to on third reading. The Chair hears none.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, do we have this bill as amended? Was not the bill amended yesterday?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chief Clerk advises the Chair that the bill is on the desks of the Members.

Mr. ANDREWS. I find it on my desk, Mr. Speaker.

I would just like the indulgence of the Chair. We have had some unfortunate experiences with amendments on bills and I think it is wise that we check up on these amendments hereafter.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair agrees with the gentleman.

Mr. ANDREWS. All right, Mr. Speaker.

Shall the bill pass finally?

forces of the United States or from any women's organization officially connected therewith without a learner's permit and the temporary suspension of existing laws requiring the same" be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of further consideration.

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 25, 1945.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That when the Senate adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, April 30, 1945, at four o'clock p. m., and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, April 30, 1945, at three o'clock p. m.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, as I understand, in order to gain an hour for the Printer, it is desired to move up the time of meeting of the House to three o'clock. I would like to say to the Members on this side that we will, with the House meeting at three o'clock, the Democratic Members of the House will caucus at three o'clock and try to join the rest of the House by 3:30 or thereabouts.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would like to point out to the Members that we are talking about three o'clock next Monday, April 30.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, during the closing hours or days of this Session we will on this side insist that amendments to House Bills be in each case explained as to the effect of them, what has been done and what is the significance of the amendments. It has been the practice to accept the amendments on the basis of the concurrence of the Majority and Minority Leaders. There have been two very unfortunate experiences so far as amended bills are concerned, mysterious amendments, cases in which the Majority and the Minority Leaders failed to catch what was going on. Next week we will expect that in every instance the significance of amended bills will be fully explained to this House.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair hopes that is no reflection on the desk.

Mr. ANDREWS. It is no reflection on the desk but it is a reflection somewhere when a bill is mysteriously recalled from the Governor for the purpose of, as this House supposes, typographical amendments, changing simply something technical in the bill, and as a result of amendments that escaped the attention of the Minority Leader and the Majority Leader also, the whole intent of the bill is amended and changed. The bill goes back to be signed and it is necessary to pass a repealer to rectify the mistake that has been made. It is the concern of this House but no proper charge against the desk. It is something put in a very important measure, in a way that nobody knows, the Chairman of the Committee or the Members of the Committee, but from the Department of Justice comes into a bill, without the general knowledge of this House, an amendment that changes the whole nature of a bill. There are two instances that perilously approach sharp practice, the only two instances of the kind since this Legislature began, and instances in which the Majority Leader, nor any of his associates had any part, but instances which were the result of outside influences in the affairs of this House. That is the reason I am saying, Mr. Speaker, that during the coming week we will expect a full accounting of all amendments that are presented for consideration by this body.

TIME EXTENDED ON BILL

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, at the request of the sponsor I move that the time on House Bill No. 969, Printer's No. 417, entitled:

An Act to repeal sections one thousand one hundred ninety to one thousand one hundred ninety-six of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 103) entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" relating to opening making amending and repairing highways and bridges by contracts with taxpayers on page 31 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed, be extended five days.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The resolution lies over for printing under the Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. McNALLY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, Throughout the past few months that this Legislature has been in session, numerous bills were presented and passed, raising salaries of certain groups or individuals, and giving financial relief to various organizations and historical societies—yet nothing has been done to help the aged and feeble men and women and the dependent and neglected children of this Commonwealth to maintain a decent standard of living.

Especially among the aged is this problem vital and serious.

In some cases the burden is put upon already overburdened sons or daughters, who are trying to properly raise a family of their own.

Ladies and gentlemen, these helpless people are Americans, who do not seek charity.

They would gladly go to work if physically possible, to earn their own living, but can't.

So, I appeal to you as fellow Americans and Members of this House, to do something constructive to relieve this problem.

Mr. Speaker, I present the following resolution and ask for its immediate consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution? Is there objection?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

This resolution will lie over under the rules.

CALL FOR QUORUM

Mr. HALUSKA. To determine, Mr. President, whether we have a quorum present to conduct the business of this session, I ask that the roll be called and all members present be recorded.

The PRESIDENT. For the information of the gentleman from Cambria, according to the rules of the Senate, it is necessary that two Senators request a roll call to determine whether a quorum is present.

Is there a seconder to the request of the gentleman from Cambria?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I call for a quorum to determine whether or not we have a quorum. The roll must be called.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objectioon to the request of the gentleman from Cambria? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk will call the roll.

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred)

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of information.

Mr. WALKER. Will the Chair please announce for what purpose the roll is being called so that the Senate will be advised?

The PRESIDENT. The roll is being called at the request of the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska. The Chair ruled that any two Senators have a right to demand a roll call. Only one Senator demanded a roll call, and the Chair translated that into a request and asked if there was any objection; there was no objection, and therefore the roll is being called.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am not objecting to it, but I just wanted to find out why the roll was being called, because there are a number of Senators in the ante-room and, frankly I am interested in them getting here and being marked present.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, to answer the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, the purpose for calling this roll is to determine whether we have a quorum present.

PERMISSION REQUESTED TO ASK LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, may I ask at this time for unanimous consent to ask for leaves of absence for two of my colleagues? They asked me to do so, I omitted doing it, and I want to correct that omission.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of order.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I understand the calling of the roll had been started.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Stiefel, who said he inadvertently forgot to ask for leaves of absence for two of his colleagues?

Mr. STIEFEL. I made an omission which I desire to have corrected.

The PRESIDENT. In the opinion of the Chair, the request of the gentleman from Philadelphia should be granted

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I ask leaves of absence for two of my colleagues, Senator DiSILVESTRO, who is ill at home; he had to go home because he has to undergo certain medical treatment. I also ask for leave of absence for Senator JASPAN, whose mother is in the last minutes of her life.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none. The leaves of absence are granted.

The PRESIDENT. Does the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, have any further remarks?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I only ask that the roll be called to determine whether or not we have a quorum present.

(The Clerk proceeded with the calling of the roll.)

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HALUSKA and were as follows, viz:

Barr,	Crowe,	Kephart,	Tallman,
Becker,	Daly,	Leader,	Taylor,
Berger,	Edmonds,	Letzler,	Thomas,
Blass,	Farrell,	Mallery,	Troutman,
Bowers,	Geltz,	McGinnis,	Wade,
Carr,	Haluska,	Rosenfeld,	Wagner,
Chapman,	Heyburn,	Ruth,	Walker,
Coleman,	Holland,	Snowden,	Wilson,
Cox,	Homsher,	Stevenson,	Woodring,
Crider,	Jones,	Stiefel,

The PRESIDENT. The roll having been called, 39 Senators having answered "Present", the Chair declares a quorum to be present.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I was unable to ascertain before the roll was called whether or not leave of absence was asked for the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, and I think out of courtesy to Senator Dent that it should be explained that the other day, when he left the Senate, he did so because of a sudden death in his family, and that he is absent from the Senate at this time because of that death. I do not know whether anybody asked for leave of absence for the gentleman, or whether he asked for it himself before he left the Senate, but I think in all fairness to Senator Dent that explanation should be made so that he does not appear on the roll as being arbitrarily or capriciously absent at this time.

Therefore Mr. President, I ask for leave of absence in behalf of the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator DENT, in case such a request does not appear on the record, because of the bereavement in his family, because of the death of his brother.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, the gentleman from Beaver, Senator Kline, has been confined to a hospital. He remained here as long as he could this week, but now he has had to go home by reason of his health.

I therefore ask leave of absence for the gentleman from Beaver, Senator KLINE, due to illness.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask that a temporary leave of absence be granted the gentleman from Washington, Senator GOURLEY, who is busy in another department of the state at present.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria will proceed.

Mr. HALUSKA. I wish to ask the Chair whether I am in order by making a request at this time that from this day on, until we adjourn sine die, that no member be recorded as voting unless he is actually in his seat and answers to the roll call.

The PRESIDENT. On the point of order raised by the gentleman from Cambria, the Senate rules contain no provision requiring that a Senator be in his seat when answering to his name during the calling of a roll.

Unless the Senate directs otherwise, because of the practice that has heretofore prevailed, the Chair shall continue to permit Senators to vote from any spot within the Senate Chamber they desire, although in the opinion of the Chair, Senators should be in their seats when voting.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I care little whether members are in their seats or not when voting, but I want no one recorded as voting unless they do answer to their names when called. In the past we have recorded members as voting "aye" or "nay" when they were not present during that day's session, but now that we are going down the home stretch I believe every man ought to be at these sessions, unless he has a leave of absence and, therefore, unless he shall answer to his name, it is my request that the Recording Clerk mark him as absent.

The PRESIDENT. In the opinion of the Chair, the request of the gentleman from Cambria is proper. However, it can be raised only at the time of each roll call. If the gentleman from Cambria believes the Clerk has improperly recorded a member as voting, the gentleman from Cambria has the privilege of requiring that the roll be verified. The Chair can not rule further than that in advance. As the gentleman from Cambria knows, the Clerk is supposed to record only those Senators who are present and actually vote.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, am I to understand, if I wish to press my point that I must ask for a verification of the roll call or raise a question after every roll call? Is that right?

The PRESIDENT. If the gentleman from Cambria believes that the Clerk has incorrectly recorded the roll, that is correct.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. McNALLY and FLEMING.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 59.

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1945.

The policy of the Commonwealth, supported by its law, is to adequately provide a decent and healthful standard of living for the needy who are unable to provide that same standard for themselves.

Those aged persons, those who are handicapped by physical defects or ailments, and those dependent and neglected children whose age alone makes assistance necessary, require the help of the Commonwealth to bring to them a full measure of health and contentment.

Those children of aged and needy persons who are striving to adequately provide for themselves and to give to their own children all those things that will make their future secure should not be compelled to bear the extra burden of providing for needy parents.

Although it is the aim of the Commonwealth to provide sufficient help to maintain a decent standard of living for needy persons, studies published by the Department of Public Assistance indicate that cash allowances are not made to cover the cost of all minimum living requirements recognized as essential to a decent and healthful standard of living; and it is most essential that such costs should be covered if our dependents are to be afforded proper and sufficient relief.

The health of the growing children of the Commonwealth is necessary to insure a strong and efficient citizenry in the future and the neglect of a portion of that group will materially affect the Pennsylvania of tomorrow.

For the Commonwealth to now provide less than is necessary to supply the minimum cost of living to its needy is to undermine the future; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concurs), by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, That the Department of Public Assistance and the State Board of Public Assistance give special and immediate consideration to the adoption of standards of assistance sufficient to provide for the minimum living requirements of dependent persons, and especially for the care of dependent and needy children; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of Public Assistance inform the General Assembly of whatever additional appropriation, if any, would be required to provide for the minimum living requirements of such persons.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. HARE and ROYER.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 60.

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1945.

In a glass case in a room in the Museum Biulding, there are now displayed the regimental flags of several Confederate Regiments.

They represent the valor of the Pennsylvania organizations which were responsible for their capture, but the years have paled the flags and although the valor and bravery of those who captured them has not dimmed, the reason for the retention of those flags as evidence of that valor and bravery, is no more.

As we will always remember, the outstanding courage and the unselfish devotion of the men of the North, so will we ever recall and acknowledge the bravery of those of the South who sacrificed all they held dear for the cause in which they believed.

With the differences that then existed expunged by the blood of those who struggled so valiantly, the Nation exists today united and undivided, and the flags that now are displayed in our Museum are as much a part of the records and archives of the States whose men at arms carried them into battles, as they are of Pennsylvania whose soldiers carried them out of battle.

They were the flags of the South, and as evidence of our respect for, and admiration of, those Americans who so proudly fought under them, it is most fitting that they should now be returned to the States for which those brave men sacrificed so much; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concurs), By the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, is hereby requested and authorized to have the flags of the several Confederate Regiments that are now on display in the Museum Building removed therefrom, and that after the said flags have been repaired and made safe for transport that His Excellency, the Governor, shall at a time and place and in such manner as he deems proper return the said flags into the custody of the States whose regiments carried them, in order that they may there be preserved as mementos of those regiments and as evidence of the friendship and esteem of this Commonwealth and its people; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution shall be transmitted to His Excellency, The Governor, by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. MOSER and FINNERTY.

RESOLUTION No. 61.

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1945.

Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, That the Speaker of the House shall appoint three members thereof to make an investigation of the probable cost incident to the establishment and maintenance of a barber shop in the Capitol Building for the use of the members of the House, and make a report to the House of Representatives not later than the first Monday in February, one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. DAVID P. REESE, Jr. Mr. Speaker, the time and the hour having arrived for calling a meeting of the Workmen's Compensation Committee, asks unanimous consent to hold a meeting of that committee in Room 230.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give consent to the Committee to meet during the session of the House? Is there objection?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I think it is very unfair to call a meeting at this time of the Committee when we now go on to second reading bills. We do not know what is in these bills. When we leave the House for a meeting, that meeting might last for hours due to the fact that we have not had a meeting of this Committee so far. I am a member of it.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to assure the gentleman from Westmoreland that there are a lot of bills on second reading that are not in print and probably will be delayed. I also assure him, and I believe the action of the majority in this session will reveal to him that if there is anything in the bills passed on second reading that he would like to amend, we will have no objection on this side of the House to his offering the amendments on third reading. That will give him the week-end to go over the bills on the calendar. I think that is fair, and I think he knows that the Members of the House are trying to be fair. I see no objection why we should proceed otherwise.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the gentleman for making it very clear, but I think it should be announced once more so that these men who are on the committee will know there is a meeting of the Committee on Workmen's Compensation.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objection and consent is granted.

INTERROGATION

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like permission of the House to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lehigh permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, would it be possible to arrange a definite order of business at which time interrogation could be made as to the effect of amendments made by the House or the Senate to pending bills that come to the House for consideration.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Do I understand the gentleman correctly, Mr. Speaker, that he would like to have as an order of business a time when all amended bills would be considered coming from the Senate for concurrence or non-concurrence—that they be taken up as a special order of business?

Mr. ANDREWS. As a special order of business, Mr. Speaker, at which time the effect of the amendments would be stated upon the floor for the consideration of all the membership.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman I would certainly agree to a procedure whereby, by agreement between the Minority Leader and myself, we meet the issue as it arises. Certainly when the bills come up for concurrence, whether the House agrees or disagrees with the amendments inserted by the Senate, at that time we unfold all the information on the amendments inserted by the Senate. I see no objection to that.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, would it be possible to have the explanation of the amendments before the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader are asked to signify their concurrence or non-concurrence? As the gentleman knows, on these amendment slips that are brought to both the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader there is a place to signify whether they concur or nonconcur in the amendments, and what I am driving at is to have the explanation as to the effect of these amendments made upon the floor of the House before the Minority Leader and the Majority Leader signify their position.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I would state to the gentleman from Cambria that the messages from the Senate are in the hands of the Minority Leader and myself, and we must sign the slips for either concurrence or non-concurrence. That is always done with the consent of the sponsor of the bill. I just don't know what procedure the gentleman would have in mind that we might follow in getting the information on the amendments prior to the time that the amendments were read. When the question on the amendments is before the House we can ask to have the amendments explained. I am perfectly in agreement with that.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, as the Majority Leader knows, I have in my possession a memorandum asking for a position on House Bills 559, 596, and Senate Bill 46. Now it will be perfectly possible if the House will agree and the Majority Leader will agree, that I could ask him what the effect of the amendments to a particular bill is. Senate Bill 46 for instance, and I could have the explanation as to the effect of the amendments, and the explanation would be a matter of record before I signified my position or asked the Members on this side of the House to take a position.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I feel that it would be a great deal more orderly procedure if we did not release the slip until the sponsor of the bill and we were all in accord as to whether or not we were in agreement with the amendments. We certainly first of all should have the information available as to what the amendments inserted by the Senate would do as to the provisions of the bill already passed. I am concerned as to whether it would be the proper time to have this explanation prior to the signing of the slip rather than at the time the amendments are read and concurrence or non-concurrence is requested by the desk. I think that time would be the proper time to ask for an explanation of the amendments before a roll call is taken.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the gentleman from Lehigh that he wants the slips signed before the explanation has been made to the body of the House?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I think that would be a much more orderly procedure, Mr. Speaker. If the slip is signed and it is agreeable to the sponsor of the bill to have the amendments concurred in or non-concurred in before the slip is signed, then when the vote is taken to concur or non-concur, a proper explanation of the amendments be made before the House is asked to vote upon the amendments.

Mr. ANDREWS. In that event, Mr. Speaker, if the slips must be signed before the explanation is made upon the floor of the House it will be incumbent upon me to non-concur in all of the amendments. If the explanation is made upon the floor of the House then the signing of the slips becomes less important.

I failed to catch one very important amendment, and I do not intend from now on to take the entire responsibility of pledging the good faith of the Members on this side of the House for or against any amendment to any bill until they have had the opportunity of knowing what the effect of that amendment is. Otherwise, if that is not done I would have to caucus on these measures, and it will take more time of the House to caucus, because I positively will not sign a concurrence slip until it has been made a matter of record what the effect of that amendment is.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say to the gentleman from Cambria that I would be most willing if he would note on the slip of paper that he receives for concurrence or non-concurrence, along with the action on the minority side, that he would prefer an explanation of these amendments. In that event we would certainly give the explanation when he desires. There are many times when probably a word or two is changed and a check with the sponsor who is acquainted with the change that is made will clear the matter and in those instances we can follow through in the regular way. If the gentleman will at that time note on the slip that an explanation is desired that will be perfectly satisfactory.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Lichtenwalter.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lehigh permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether or not this bill is a bill on the program of the Post-War Planning Commission?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. It is not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. May I ask the gentleman whether or not we have found the Post-War Planning Commission yet?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I informed the gentleman yesterday, Mr. Speaker, where they were located.

Mr. COHEN. I would inform the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, that it was reported at eleven o'clock last night that there was a life raft twenty miles off shore at Lake Erie, and the Post-War Planning Commission was on it. I wish to thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, far be it from me to press a point too much for fear perhaps that I may be boring the Members of the House, but I think, as was stated the other night on several motions to recommit bills, we ought to keep the record straight.

I think in view of the interrogation of yesterday in the discussion on the Post-War Planning Commission problem the record ought to be kept straight. We were told yesterday on interrogation that this bill and three or four bills that follow on the calendar were not a part of the Post-War Planning Commission program. We were told that they represented the Governor's program, and I got the impression at least from the statement made by the gentleman from Lehigh that it may be that we have a Planning Commission and it may be that we have not, but at any rate this program is all the Governor's. If I remember correctly I said "that would be fine, if anything went wrong the Governor would be blamed for it, and if everything is all right the Governor will be given credit for it," which is just as things should be, but begging leave of the House to discuss other bills on the calendar not yet in issue, in order to save the time in debate, I would like to correct the record and set it straight. I would like to refer if I may to a little blue book which is entitled "Message to the General Assembly of Pennsylvania by Major-General Edward Martin, Governor of Pennsylvania," dated January 2, 1945, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

If you have it on your deskk, turn to page 10 and on the bottom of page 10 you will find a heading "Post-War" and this is what the Governor said in part:

> While this is a war time period and everything we do should help in the prosecution of the war to a victorious conclusion we can however see the star of victory on the horizon and it is necessary to plan for the days of peace. During the war only necessary improvements and repairs have been made to buildings owned by the Commonwealth. Good business demands that as soon as possible all state buildings be put into sound condition. Roads, parks, harbors, airports and other installations will demand attention. Under the budget—

And you will remember we got a budget the same day—

> . . . a plan is submitted for post-war construction. I hope that you will study it closely. The suggested program follows:

And then there is a sub-heading "Post-War Projects", and then in much smaller print there is a list of projects for the Department of Forests and Waters, the Department of Health and several other departments. Then the Governor goes on to say:

> You will notice when you study the budget and the budget message that the large accumulated surplus is being used for two purposes, primarily: paying off debts; and for a large program of post-war construction and other projects

I want to point out here that the second part of the program was decided upon only after much deliberation. There was the paragraph

> There was a choice of impounding this part of the surplus in a reserve fund, or recommending that it be set up for useful and necessary capital projects. The second choice was adopted for two reasons, primarily, first, as I have already said, during the war we have fallen behind in providing and maintaining our capital facilities. Many of these have become very urgent and must be undertaken as soon as possible. And, secondly, this program was decided upon from the employment angle. Who can tell what conditions will confront us during the post-war years? It seemed the best course to set up a program of necessary public works to be developed to the blue print stage, so that employment could be provided at once if an acute unemployment situation should develop.

Now, please note, the last thing the Governor said was:

> Our Post-War Planning Commission has worked diligently and should be continued.

Now, will you tell me, is this the Governor's program or is it the Post War Planning Commission's program?

Before you answer that question may I point out some very peculiar coincidences. The Governor in his message attributes the program to the careful planning and even the bringing to the blue print stage to the arduous and intensive work of the Post-War Planning Commission.

Then the Governor's message continues, Department of Forests and Waters twelve million dollars. On the calendar House Bill 68 "For the Department of Forests and Waters twelve million five hundred thousand dollars."

"Department of Health twelve million three hundred twenty-five thousand dollars."

On the calendar, in House Bill 67, you will find twelve million three hundred twenty-five thousand dollars.

In the Governor's message, Department of Public Instruction eight million dollars. On the calendar House Bill 139 provides eight million dollars.

In the Governor's message the Department of Welfare fifteen million seven hundred thirty-five thousand dollars. On the calendar House Bill 156 nineteen million nine hundred eighty-five thousand dollars.

In the Governor's message for Pennsylvania State Police two million fifty thousand dollars. Last week we passed a bill for two million dollars.

Now, in the Governor's message we find Post War Planning Commission, aid to local governments in preparing plans, one million dollars. Recently we passed a bill for one million dollars.

Now, whose program is it? Is it the Governor's program primarily or is it the Post War Planning Commission's program for which the Governor seeks to shoulder the blame or the credit?

Mr. Speaker, I have no objection if this is the Governor's program, because we indicated yesterday and we will show you by our vote today that we are for the Governor's program. We have no objection if the Governor wants to take the blame or the credit. If it works out well he gets the credit, and if it does not work well he gets the blame, although by that time he might not be in office, but, Mr. Speaker, the point I want to make primarily may I say is this, and primarily may I say that my remarks are not directed to the personnel of the Post War Planning Commission because from my observation and from my investigation I find that with one exception the personnel has worked well and has worked diligently and has worked faithfully, although within the narrow limitations of a policy set down by the members of the Commission themselves.

If we were to develop a little quiz program now I would like to ask any Member of the House if he could name more than three of the ten members of the Commission. We do not know who they are; we have not met them, either socially or otherwise and we have not had a chance to appraise the capabilities of the personnel and decide whether they are sincere in their activities or not. I have been told that certain members have worked diligently on projects that might have been taken up, but this House does not know that—we do not know anything, but at the same time we are being asked to pass on a program of which we know nothing at all and give the green light to a Commission of ten members whom we do not know, for a blue print which we have not seen and to spend money which they recommend but which is denied on the floor of this House, and we are told it is purely the Governor's program.

Later today we are going to be asked to give to the Post War Planning Commission two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. If there is no Post War Planning Commission, if there is no program, why an appropriation?

And may I point out a couple of other items, for which we have seen no recommendations by the Governor or by the mythical Post War Planning Commission with respect to the Bureau of Aeronautics. However, we know that they have done their job, and we only recently introduced bills for an appropriation to them, and that job is being worked out by a bi-partisan committee of the House and Senate who are meeting with the Governor at lunch every Monday. That job has been done by a separate group; the Post War Planning Commission has done nothing.

I find that one of the directives to the Post War Planning Commission was to study transportation, and I know that the Post War Planning Commission spent about fifteen thousand dollars for a survey of transportation, but up to this time we have had no report, and up to this time we have not been advised that there is a report or that a study has even been made.. Are we to give them an appropriation for spending more money on something that we do not know and on which we have no information?

If you want more instances I will cite them to you. Let that be an outstanding if not a glaring example of the darkness in which we are kept about this mythical Commission.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I think that the record ought to be made clear and I think it ought to state that when the Post War Planning Commission was first put into being two years ago, this side objected. This side objected not only because of the Governor's power to pick the personnel of the Commission, but that it would be placing too much concentration in one place, that there was no diversification of representation, that there was no provision in the bill for minority representation, and not alone that, there was no provision for representation by the Members of this House, and yet we are told we are the ones who must worry about raising the money; we are the ones that must worry about levying taxes.

I say, Mr. Speaker, there should be a statement here and now that this Post War Planning Commission shall tell us what they have done, shall report to this House what they have been doing and tell us what they intend to do. If the Post War Planning Commission will not tell us what they have done or intend to do, then we ought to put up the red light on the Post War Planning Commission until we have an idea of what a mess they are going to get us in for us to pay out of the taxes from the people, because we are the ones who must impose the taxes to raise the money.

Let us get the thing straight, the minority is not against the appropriation bills for these postwar projects, but we are a little bit concerned that the Post War Planning Commission has not determined as far as we know what the prospects in the labor field will be, what the labor market will be like, what possible employment there will be, or how to determine where housing will be necessary for workers who may be shifted from one place to another, and a thousand problems that are necessary in regulating a state and in regulating the welfare of its people.

I think we ought to know these things and have them put down on paper and then tell them whether we agree with them or not. I think that ought to be done now, today or next week, but I think we ought not to waste more money or spend more money—I will take out the word "waste" because they may give us a good report—but we should not spend more money on a mythical Commission that may or may not exist at this time.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I should just like to reiterate what I have said on numerous occasions in the last two days, that this program, the expenditures during the post war period of these sums of money obtained in these bills is the Governor's program, and that the money will be spent only with his approval.

During the period of time since the outbreak of the war the various engineering staffs and the staffs generally of the various Departments which are going to receive this money have been blueprinting, have been adopting plans to carry out the provisions contained in these bills. Certainly I cannot conceive in my mind where the gentleman is tying in the Post War Planning Commission with the particular bills which are confronting us at this time. This is the Governor's program, it is his recommendation and will be spent with his approval and the approval of the Departments who are receiving this money, and not the Post War Planning Commission.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lehigh permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I shall.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is there not other legislation on the calendar that has received favorable action of the House whereby fifty percent of the cost of preparing engineering plans for sewage disposal plants to municipalities is provided?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe so. I believe the gentleman is referring to Senate Bill 8 which has been over here and is in the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. ANDREWS. Does the gentleman say there is no other legislation pending that makes an appropriation and that has not been on the calendar and favorably acted upon?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, there is Senate Bill 8, which appropriates one million dollars, and it goes to the Post War Planning Commission, which they can use in connection with political subdivisions in preparing plans, giving them fifty percent or a certain amount, or percentage on the projects to be undertaken. That as I recall has not been acted upon in the House but is in the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. ANDREWS. Does the gentleman say that that bill has not been acted upon in the House, one million dollars for the aid of municipalities?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Not to my knowledge, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. I would like to have the fact verified.

The SPEAKER. The history shows it was not reported from Committee.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, according to the last notes in my history:

> An Act to authorize the Pennsylvania Post-War Planning Commission, under certain conditions, to enter into agreements with political subdivisions of this Commonwealth for the financing of plans and specifications for public works; and making an appriation.

passed third reading and final passage in the Senate on April 12th and it is in the House Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

I desire to make some observations that will cover this entire series of appropriation bills. I notice that in this fifty percent provision of the cost of preparing engineering and architectural plans and estimates, the plans for the treatment of sewage and industrial waste, that we furnish fifty percent of the money for preparing the plans that may be made by private corporations. I am in doubt as to whether that was the intent of those who framed the bill, that if a private corporation desires to prepare plans for the elimination of its own industrial waste, under the provisions of this bill the Commonwealth would pay fifty percent of the cost thereby incurred.

I ask you to note the provisions of this bill which are similar to all the other provisions of the bills upon which we will be asked to vote, to note them for the particular purpose of noting the extent to which you are conferring legislative powers and legislative responsibility upon a Department. If you will look at section two of this bill, it is wide open. It enables the Departments to proceed with projects that could only be properly sponsored by this General Assembly.

The entire bill is wide open, they build buildings ad lib and choose the purposes that they will serve. This bill does not place any definite responsibility in connection with this twelve million dollars upon anybody. You are not obligated to build anything, you are not obligated to spend the twelve million dollars, you are not obligated to build sewage disposal plants, you are not obligated to prepare plans. It is the widest latitude ever given to responsible people, a supposedly responsible Department whose business it is to execute the will of this Legislature. Now, if that is the way you want to go, that is the way you will go, but I call your attention again that you are not placing the responsibility for any particular definite performance upon the part of the Health Department, upon the part of the Forestry Department, upon any Department, and you are handing them over sixty million dollars without the faintest idea as to what they will do with the money or when they will spend it.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I want to talk just a moment on the Post War Planning Commission.

In my original remarks I made a statement, and for fear that it might be misunderstood, and in fairness to the individuals involved I think I should say this: I said that the employes of the Post War Planning Commission with one exception were doing a decent job. I want to say that the one person who is not doing a decent job is the so-called publicity man, who apparently never got out any publicity for the Post War Planning Commission —at least I haven't seen much of it, and the files of the United States Senate investigation recently held will show that the individual spent most of his time in the company of politicians. In any discussion of the work of the Post War Planning Commission I want the record to be straight on that issue.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I feel that I should say that in our caucus there is some question as to this bill and as to the attitude of the Philadelphia delegation regarding it. I would say that Mr. Skale as a Member of the Committee will report and will ascertain if this bill is desirable, so I hope that the Members on this side of the House will inform themselves on Mr. Skale's report before voting.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. FREED. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. FREED. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if the Capitol police come under the State Police.

The SPEAKER. The Chair did not understand.

Mr. FREED. Mr. Speaker, are the Capitol police under the State Police Department?

The SPEAKER. No, the Capital police are not under the State Police Department.

Mr. FREED. Are they under the Police Department of Harrisburg, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. They are not. They are under the Department of Property and Supplies.

Mr. FREED. Mr. Speaker, I believe that the Members of the House would appreciate very much next week if our Capitol police would be instructed to see that we have parking space in front of the Capitol.

Yesterday morning in parking in front of the Capitol, in one section I found fifteen cars in a row not belonging to Members of the House or the Senate. I do believe that in the closing days of the session we definitely should have some place close to the House to park our cars to take care of whatever we wish to take home or to look into our cars, for the remainder of the week.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is informed that Members of the House have given their stickers to friends so that they may park their cars, and the privilege of parking on the ramp has been abused. The Capitol police therefore have no way of identifying who is entitled to park there. The Chair requests the Members to cooperate with the Capitol police in this matter.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, I can agree with the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Freed, because each and every Monday since the opening of the session it has been a daily or weekly occurrence with the Capitol police on the plaza. I would suggest, Mr. Speaker, that you instruct the officers to see that the Members of the House are permitted to park their cars there. It seems that the officers tell us that these cars belong to so and so, people who are not Members. I do not think it is fair to the Members of the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair agrees with the gentleman. The Capitol police have been ready to cooperate at all times with this body. The Chair will direct the Chief Clerk to make an investigation of the situation with regard to parking so that the Members' wishes will be granted.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I have been unofficially informed once again that the Senate only intends to be in session four days next week. I think we ought to ascertain what is the official status of this situation.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. LICHTENWALTER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I do not know what I can say as to the official status, but at the last conference I had with the leaders of the Senate, it was agreed that we would push for final adjournment on May 5. I have received no word of any change in that plan whatsoever. I certainly feel that the Senate would inform the House if there is any change in the plan, but I have received no such word whatsoever.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, two Members of the House were over in the Senate speaking to Senator Coleman. He told those two Members of the House that it was his definite understanding that the Senate would meet only four days next week.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, with the consent of the Minority Leader I would say that I could probably answer at great length, but I went over to the Senate to speak with the Majority Leader and the Chairman of the Caucus in the Senate, and they informed me that there was no change in the plan.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, just in order that the situation may be definitely determined, would not the Majority Leader once again ascertain from the Senate just what its intention is?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I will be most happy to take the Minority Leader with me if the House will remain just a few minutes longer. Will the Minority Leader accompany me?

Mr. ANDREWS. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The House will grant leave of absence to the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader?

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 26, 1945.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That Senate Bill No. 44, Printer's No. 328, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty seven (P. L. 814), entitled "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in cities of the second class as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries; prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors; and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens, parties, political bodies, registration commissions, commissioners, registrars, inspectors of registration, and other appointees of registration commissions, county election boards, election officers, municipal officers, departments and bureaus, police officers, courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, county commissioners, peace officers, county treasurers, county controllers, registrars of vital statistics, certain public utility corporations, real estate brokers, rental agents, and boards of school directors and imposing penalties" by further regulating and changing the provisions of the act relating to cancellation of registration upon the failure to vote within two years and providing for the reinstatement of electors' registrations after failing to vote during two calendar years be recalled from the Governor for further consideration and amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

INTERROGATION

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the Majority Leader or the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. I would ask the gentleman to turn to Senate Bill 44, Printer's No. 328 and indicate to the House what were the amendments to that bill made by the House.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, they are quite lengthy, but it is my understanding that the House inserted all of the print in italics.

Mr. ANDREWS. And further, does not the bill in its present form show that the amendments inserted by the House have been stricken out?

Mr. SORG. It does, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. And further, does not the House history show that the Senate agreed to the House amendments?

Mr. SORG. That is not my interpretation of the Senate history, Mr. Speaker. However, a more recent history made available to me, Mr. Speaker, shows that the Senate did concur in the House amendments.

Mr. ANDREWS. Is the gentleman from Elk familiar with the fact that Senate Bill 44 was one of a series of bills that were similarly amended, and that the amendments inserted by the House as the bill now stands show that they were stricken out?

Mr. SORG. I am familiar with those facts, Mr. Speaker. I inquired, however, of one of the other Members of the Committee on Elections in the House and am advised further that the amendments inserted by the House were also stricken out on a re-report from the Committee of Elections of this House, so that the insertion of the amendments and the striking out of the amendments, to my understanding, both took place in the Committee on Elections of this House.

Mr. ANDREWS. And the House ratified the return of the bills to the Senate minus the House amendments?

Mr. SORG. That is my understanding, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Does the record so show?

Mr. SORG. Will the gentleman permit me a little time to refer to the record, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. ANDREWS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman turn to Printer's No. 226 as reported from the Committee on Elections March 24th? It is my understanding that the report on Printer's No. 226 shows that the bill with the amendments that were inserted and the Printer's No. 328 shows the bill re-reported with the inserted amendments stricken out, and it is therefore my opinion that the record does show that in the House Committee of Elections the amendments were both inserted and stricken out.

Mr. ANDREWS. Then in what did the Senate concur?

Mr. SORG. There were some amendments in the bills inserted by the House that were not stricken out.

Mr. ANDREWS. Further may I ask, is the record in the Senate history correct? "Referred to committee. Reported as amended?" That was a Senate bill. Now, which is that bill?

Mr. SORG. It is my understanding, Mr. Speaker, that the action on March 21, as the Senate history shows, it would have been reported as amended as shown by Printer's No. 226, which shows amendments inserted.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if all the House amendments were stricken out of the bill, in what did the Senate concur?

Mr. SORG. It is not my understanding that all of the House amendments were stricken out, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. I would like to ask the gentleman what House amendments remained in the bill.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I would like to suggest of course that the bill would require comparison word for word. I might suggest one that I have in mind in Printer's No. 328, Mr. Speaker, on page 3, the insertion in italics on line 16 was not stricken out.

Mr. ANDREWS. A further question, Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from Elk familiar with the fact that this Senate Bill 44 was in printed form, or was he under the impression that the parts stricken out were still in the bill?

Mr. SORG. It was not my impression that the parts stricken out were still in the bill, Mr. Speaker.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. LICHTENWALTER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the committee on the part of the House wishes to inform the House that the Senate has agreed to be in session four days next week, and I have agreed with the Minority Leader that the Members who have left for their homes for this session, in fact all Members be notified by a telegram by the Chief Clerk of the decision that there will be a four day session next week, but that we convene at three o'clock on Monday as has been previously decided, to give the Printer an opportunity to clear up his work. Convening on Monday at that time will help him tremendously. We will convene at three o'clock and work four days next week, and the entire membership of the House will be notified by telegram of the change.

I would also like to add to my statement by saying that I feel the Senate has not been courteous to the House in not notifying us of their action prior to the leaving of many of the Members who obtained permission to leave. I think that is a courtesy that should have been given to the House, notifying the House of the decision to convene but four days next week.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

Republican Caucus, Monday April 30, at 2:00 p. m. in New House Caucus Room.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. SLOAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, April 30, 1945, at 3 p. m.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 3:36 p. m.) the House adjourned.

Session 1945. 136th of the General Assembly.

Vol. 29. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1945. No. 53.

SENATE

MONDAY, April 30, 1945.

The Senate met at 4:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern War Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor John C. Bell, Jr.) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. EDWIN S. WALLACE, D. D., offered the following prayer:

May we in this moment of silence "Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his names" and "Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness." For that name is above every name and that holiness is ineffable. We can speak that name—let us do so with reverence. We can worship that holiness by endeavoring to be holy in thought and word and deed. We pray for the courage and the will to make the endeavor.

May Thy favor, O God, be granted to all who are striving to create a new world wherein truth and righteousness abide among men, and honor and peace among the nations. Bring to naught the designs of all men or nations who are plotting for selfish ends, willing to wreck the hopes of world peace to attain their selfish purposes.

Grant to men of good will the strength of character that will resist and overcome all men and nations of evil will. We pray for this in the belief that only in this way can justice be restored to a world long dominated by injustice born of selfishness.

Sustain, O Lord, the leaders of our nation in all their righteous purposes and thus by the might of right overcome all our enemies.

In the name of the righteous and loving Christ. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. HEYBURN and Mr. JAMES, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. Carr asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. CROWE on account of pressing business.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 30, 1945.

In a statement today, Governor Martin said:

"One of the major issues facing this session of the Legislature is the equitable distribution of adequate State-aid for the support of public education and the adjustment of the inequalities of teachers' salaries. I have always contended that every school child should have equal opportunity for a basic education regardless of location and financial status of the school district where such pupils reside.

"I have always advocated that our teachers should be paid a single minimum standard so that the children in the rural districts and small towns might have the benefit of instruction from teachers as well qualified as those of our large cities.

"This program is exceedingly difficult to work out without enacting additional revenue measures. After many conferences with legislative leaders, representatives of the Department of Public Instruction, the Budget Office, the School Commission and representatives of interested groups, a program has been formulated which I wholeheartedly recommend for the consideration of the Legislature.

"House Bill 568, as reported out of the Senate Committee on Education, incorporates a program which goes further than anything heretofore attempted in this Commonwealth. Its important features are:

"1. For the first time in the history of Pennsylvania a program of equalization has been developed which will provide an acceptable basic education for every boy and girl within the Commonwealth.

"2. The program guarantees to every teacher in Pennsylvania a salary which permanently incorporates the temporary cost of living increase granted two years ago, and provides further mandatory minimum and maximum salary increases for teachers in third and fourth class school districts.

"3. For the first time reimbursement to school districts is placed on such a basis that districts will participate in State reimbursements in proportion to their ability to raise money for public education and according to their need.

"4. This program strengthens the financial structure of local school districts and facilitates the financing of the local share of the cost of education at fairly uniform and reasonable local tax rates.

"5. If this legislation becomes effective this Legislature will have provided $24,000,000, in addition to the $27,000,000 made available in 1943 for the temporary cost of living increase, or $51,000,000 more per biennium than provided for by any other Administration. They will have provided a total of $127,000,000 with which to carry out the provisions of House Bill 568. This amount is more than double the amount provided for public school reimbursements in the 1937-1939 biennium, the last biennium of the Earle Administration, during which biennium there was an appropriation of $61,500,000.

"While mandatory teachers salaries in first and second class districts will not be increased above the cost of living increases provided for at the last session of the Legislature, the school districts will be materially aided. In Philadelphia the Board of Education will benefit to the extent of $1,475,000 and in Pittsburgh the Board of Education will benefit to the amount of approximately $600,000, which they may use for any proper purpose.

"Under this proposed plan an elementary teacher in a school district of the fourth class, who under the Earle Administration received $800 for an eight month term will now receive a minimum of $1400 with mandatory increments which will bring the salary to $2000. A High School teacher in the same class district who received $1170 six years ago will now receive a minimum salary of $1400 with mandatory increments which will bring the salary up to $2000. This same salary schedule will apply to teachers of the third class districts.

"In order to finance this program it may be necessary to eliminate some of the recommended appropriations as set forth in my budget message. It should be clearly understood that if this program is to be maintained, my successor will be required to ask for new sources of revenue in order that this plan may be permanently financed. If this is not done my successor will be required to suggest the suspension of part of the provisions of this bill. This has been agreed to by the legislative leaders with whom I have conferred.

"This responsibility will not rest upon the next Governor but upon the next Legislature to see that a revenue measure is enacted which will have a broad base and will require every citizen of Pennsylvania to contribute toward the financing of our educational system.

"I therefore recommend that the School Commission be continued during the next biennium and that the task of developing a new revenue program along the lines suggested be one of its chief objectives. In order to give the greatest possible tax relief to home owners it is recommended that the new revenue measure should be one which is earmarked for schools and should be sufficient to carry the entire cost of the mandatory minimum teachers salary schedule. This will greatly relieve the tax burden on real estate."

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. JASPAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Municipal Government, Senator Stevenson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Clinton permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEVENSON. I will, sir.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I desire to know whether the Committee on Municipal Government took up Senate Bill No. 439? I have a copy of the bill here if the gentleman does not remember it.

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, in answer to the question of the gentleman from Philadelphia, I will have to check the committee records on this bill.

Mr. JASPAN. How soon can the gentleman check it?

Mr. STEVENSON. It will take me about fifteen or twenty minutes.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Farrell.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Farrell, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FARRELL. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. JASPAN. I take it, Senator Farrell, you are a member of the Committee on Municipal Government and you introduced Senate Bill No. 439; am I correct?

Mr. FARRELL. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia repeat the first part of his statement?

Mr. JASPAN. Did the gentleman from Philadelphia introduce Senate Bill No. 439, calling for a three platoon system with respect to firemen in the city of Philadelphia?

Mr. FARRELL. I did present a bill, but not that bill. That is a House Bill, is it not?

Mr. JASPAN. No, Senate Bill No. 439.

Mr. FARRELL. Yes, I did.

Mr. JASPAN. Is the gentleman from Philadelphia a member of the Committee on Municipal Government?

Mr. FARRELL. Yes, I am.

Mr. JASPAN. Does the gentleman know what action that committee took with respect to Senate Bill No. 439?

Mr. FARRELL. Yes, I do.

Mr. JASPAN. What was the action taken by the Committee with respect to this bill?

Mr. FARRELL. The bill was brought up in committee and the question was asked, "does the Mayor or does the Director of Public Safety want this bill brought out?" I told the committee that I favored the bill coming out, and also that I had talked to the Mayor and to the Director of Public Safety of Philadelphia. This bill carries with it an appropriation of $1,800,000, and the Director said—this is what I told the committee—that they did not see where they could pick up $1,800,000 for a three platoon system in Philadelphia at this time.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, may I further interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia?

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Farrell, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. FARRELL. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. JASPAN. Can the gentleman show me wherein this particular bill calls for an appropriation of $1,800,000.

Mr. FARRELL. The Mayor and the firemen and the Director of Public Safety informed me, for a three platoon system, it would require from seven hundred to a thousand additional firemen to put it into effect.

Mr. JASPAN. Did the gentleman from Philadelphia realize, when he introduced this bill in behalf of the firemen, it would entail an expenditure of additional money.

Mr. FARRELL. I knew that it did involve additional money, yes.

Mr. JASPAN. Did the gentleman make a promise to the firemen of the city of Philadelphia to do all he possibly could to have this bill reported from committee, notwithstanding any appropriation?

Mr. FARRELL. I did make that promise, and tried to carry it out, but, like a whole lot of other bills I had, I could not persuade anybody to bring it out. That is not the only bill I lost in committee.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I take it that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Farrell, introduces good bills—at least he goes on record as admitting it—but nevertheless, Mr. President, I feel it is high time that we did something for the firemen of the city of Philadelphia.

This is a very unpleasant duty and task, to move for the discharge of a committee, particularly in view of its personnel—the chairman is a very fine person and so is Senator Farrell—but sometimes we do things in haste, we promise much and do little. At least, when I promise, I do all I can to carry those promises into execution.

Here is a bill introduced by Senator Farrell that calls for a three platoon system. Firemen work eight hours a day, three shifts, making twenty-four hours a day, six days a week. Assuming this bill went through, they would still work forty-eight hours a week. Philadelphia policemen today only work forty-eight hours a week, six days a week, eight hours shifts, unless an emergency arises—we can appreciate that anybody is willing to work in the event of an emergency without any additional compensation. However, with respect to the firemen who continually are exposed to the risk of harm to their bodies and probable loss of their lives, I feel some consideration should be given them.

Today in the city of Philadelphia the day shift is ten hours a day, six days a week, totaling sixty hours a week. As to the night shift, the firemen work fourteen hours a night—mind you now, fourteen hours a night—six nights a week, totaling eighty-four hours. At any moment or instant they may be called upon to risk their lives, loss of limb or possible injury, we do not know. We have instances, we have heard time and again when these gentlemen have lost their lives while on duty; some of them have lost their limbs; some of them have sustained injuries they have never recovered from, while in the employ of the city. The least we can do for them is the same thing we do for others working by the sweat of their brow. We have legislated time and again to help the worker, the laborer, who today works only forty hours a week, and if by chance he has to work beyond forty hours a week, he is paid for overtime.

The fireman does not seek any overtime. He is a human being and he deserves the same consideration and rest that others do, and probably more so, in view of the danger attached to his job. Why the city of Philadelphia has not by this time done something for the fireman, who is in the same position, and probably in a worse position, I will say, than the officer or patrolman who is on his beat day after day I do not know. When the fireman goes out to perform his task we do not know what is going to happen to him. However, generally we know what is going to happen to the policeman, who simply patrols his beat and occasionally has to make an arrest. I feel that if others only work forty-four hours a week, the fireman should work even less, in view of the great danger attached to his job.

However, the Senate committee has refused to even consider it, because of the appropriation involved. If it costs close to $1,800,000, it is well worth it, and the city could very well, by strict economy, make up this additional money, and I will show you how. We have the case of the Broad Street subway, which today is leased at $900,000, approximately two million dollars less than the actual cost of interest on the bonds. Figure that out now. It costs the city approximately $3,000,000 in payment of interest on the bonds on the Broad Street subway, and the city only gets in return $900,000. Occasionally, when business improves, it may run up to $1,500,000, but still it amounts to $1,500,000 loss to the city of Philadelphia. That money certainly could be used to make up this $1,800,000.

Let me go one step further. Only within the past two weeks Philadelphia city council saw fit to appropriate $450,000 to help the P.T.C. build the northeast loop. Of course, the P.T.C. could not do it by itself—they are not a public servant, they are out to make money—but the city works with them. They could very well spend that half a million dollars to build the northeast loop. It would pay dividends in time, probably not the first year, but maybe the second, third, fourth or fifth year.

If the city did not contribute that $500,000 that would be an additional $500,000, in addition to the $1,500,000 that they could save by renting or leasing our subway, which would more than make up the $1,800,000.

Mr. President, it is not very pleasant, as I said before, it is not an easy task, to move for the discharge of a committee. However, I am compelled to do so by the lack of action on the part of a Senate committee.

RESOLUTION

TO DISCHARGE THE COMMITTEE ON MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 439

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. JASPAN, offered the following resolution which was twice read, as follows:

In the Senate, April 30, 1945.

Resolved, That the Committee on Municipal Government be discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 439, entitled "An act to amend sections one and three of the act, approved the eighth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 276), entitled 'An act regulating the employment and hours of employment of the officers and members of the uniformed fire protection forces of the cities of the first class and repealing existing laws,' by establishing a three platoon system," said bill having been in the hands of the committee for more than ten calendar days from the date of its reference thereto.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, upon checking the records of the Committee on Municipal Government, I find that Senate Bill 439 was duly considered by the committee and was indefinitely postponed. The committee took the position that inasmuch as the state is not contributing money to the city of Philadelphia for such purposes, that that is a matter of home rule, that it was a question for Philadelphia itself to decide. So the bill, after due consideration, was laid aside by the Committee.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, it is not a question of money here, as I look at Senate Bill 439—that was given to us as an afterthought by Senator Farrell of Philadelphia. We have the right to fix the hours of employment. We have done it with respect to other forms of employment, and there is no reason why we can not do it with respect to this. We have already done it with respect to the employment of police officers, and why not extend it to the firemen is beyond me, and so I think the argument of the gentleman from Clinton falls.

MOTION TO LAY RESOLUTION ON TABLE

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I move to lay on the table the resolution to discharge the Committee on Municipal Government from further consideration of Senate Bill 439.

(The Senate was at ease.)

MOTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President I withdraw my motion to lay on the table the resolution to discharge the Committee on Municipal Government from further consideration of Senate Bill 439, and request the members of the Senate to vote down the resolution.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I do not know anything about the situation in Philadelphia county, but I do recall that a proposition very much similar to this was passed a session or two ago in regard to the city of Pittsburgh, but that bill gave the city of Pittsburgh the right to vote on the question of a three platoon system for firemen. I believe I am right in saying that the people of Pittsburgh refused to approve such a system.

I believe the Committee on Municipal Government took those things into consideration in regard to this bill, which was not a bill giving the people of Philadelphia the right to vote on this question, but a bill forcing something on them by the Legislature.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, in response to the statement by the gentleman from Somerset, Senator Ealy, I repeat what I said before, that the Legislature has a right to fix the hours of employment. They have done it time and again, and they have done it within the history of the gentleman from Somerset, Senator Ealy, who has been here much longer than I have been here, and he is still here.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. JASPAN and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—17

Barr,	Haluska,	Leader,	Rosenfeld,

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. WOODRING read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 781, entitled:

An Act to amend section five of the act approved the eighth day of July, one thousand nine hundred nineteen (P. L. 784), as amended, entitled "An act empowering cities of the second and third classes, boroughs, and counties, to acquire, maintain, and operate playgrounds, play fields, gymnasiums, public baths, swimming pools, and indoor recreation centers; authorizing school districts to join in the maintenance and operation of said activities; and authorizing the issue of bonds and the levy of taxes for such purposes," by further regulating the powers and duties of recreation boards.

Which was committed to the Committee on Municipal Government.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 782, entitled:

An Act to amend sections three thousand seven hundred four, three thousand seven hundred five and three thousand seven hundred nine of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto," by further regulating the powers and duties of recreation boards of the city.

Which was committed to the Committee on Municipal Government.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. I may be an optimist, but I do have a bill here that possibly can go through this session. In 1943 we passed an act establishing an institutional district in the county of Allegheny. Many of the employes at Mayview have sixteen, seventeen or eighteen years of service and automatically, when they went to work for the county, they were taken out of the pension fund. Now, through an agreement with the city council and the county commissioners of Allegheny County, they have worked out an agreement whereby these people and the city of Pittsburgh can deposit money in the county retirement fund and thereby make these people eligible for their pensions.

I ask, if at all possible, that this bill be sent to a proper committee in order that we may try to get it reported out.

I also have another bill here. We have had a lot of vandalism in the city of Pittsburgh, on the part of juveniles, resulting in damage to public property in schools, and this bill would make parents responsible.

I do not know what luck I will have, but I do ask the committee to give proper consideration to the bill dealing with the county institutional district.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. BARR read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 783, entitled:

An Act authorizing cities, boroughs, towns and townships to prohibit willful defacement, damage or destruction of public property by minor children and to impose liability for such defacement, damage or destruction upon parents or other legal guardians of such minor children.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 784, entitled:

An Act to further amend section three hundred twenty of an act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," as last amended by section four of the act approved the fifteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine (P. L. 365).

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. BLASS read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 785, entitled:

An Act to amend clause (h) of section nine hundred and three of the act approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," by fixing the maximum gross weight of truck tractors in combination with semi-trailers having two axles.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. GOURLEY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. GOURLEY. Mr. President and members of the Senate, several days ago we were all thrilled when knowledge had been gained that the Allied Forces and the Russians had joined in Nazi Germany, and during the weekend we were again thrilled when the rumor at least came over the air waves that the German Army was capitulating, and we are all standing by for the news that will mean so much to all of us—that Germany has unconditionally surrendered. We are all interested and concerned in those boys who are giving their lives and those who will come home and who have come home that are maimed, injured and incapacitated in one way or another.

I had that thought in my mind when I came to the Legislature the first of this year. I spoke on the Senate floor several weeks ago and pleaded with the members of this Senate to disregard politics and try and do something to help these boys and girls when they did get home, where they could not get relief that they needed under the federal G. I. Bill.

On February 21, after a great deal of study and after a reading of the G. I. Bill in the state of New York, in the state of New Jersey, and a general review of what legislation was on the statute books in other states of this union, I introduced Senate Bill 379.

This bill created a Pennsylvania authority for veterans. I have the greatest admiration and respect, as a lawyer and as a man, for my friend from Lebanon, Senator Becker. I appeared before the Committee on Banking Mr. President, I tried to reason with them, I tried to be fair, and I expended every effort at my command to have this bill released from committee for the consideration of the Senate. My efforts, however, were unavailing.

I spoke on the Senate floor a few weeks ago and said I would be willing to withdraw my name as a sponsor of this bill, and that I would ask my colleagues, Senator Barr, Senator Dent and Senator McCreesh, to withdraw their names as co-sponsors of this bill, if someone on the Republican side would take it up and sponsor it and study it, modify it, change it or amend it in any way whatsoever, just so these boys and girls, when they get home, can get the help that, God knows, they will need, and I think now is the time to do it.

As I commented very generally, under the federal G. I. Bill a man or a woman who has been honorably discharged from military service can secure a loan up to $500 from the federal government—I mean the federal government will guarantee their tuition up to $500 to complete their college education—they can borrow funds for the purpose of going into business, or going into a profession, but the federal government will only guarantee fifty per cent of the amount of their loan. As I remember it, the maximum amount that they can borrow is $2,000, but if they want to go into a business or a profession and they need $2,000 to enter that business or profession, they can only secure a guarantee from the federal government up to $1,000.

There is a provision in the G. I. Bill that if a man or woman who desires to attend college has no dependents, the federal government will guarantee up to $50 for his or her maintenance, if he or she has a dependent, whether it is one or a dozen, the federal government will guarantee up to $75 to assist them in their college work, and we know that the average man or woman can not go to college with the funds or with the amount of money that the Federal government under the G. I. Bill has made it possible for them to secure. We know that men and women can not go into business and rehabilitate or establish themselves with the amount of money under the federal G. I. Bill that is made available.

In the utmost sincereity I drafted this bill, having in mind that we should place something on our statute books now to help those who are helping us to enjoy the things in this country that mean so much to us. I think the state of Pennsylvania is becoming a back number on it.

Govenor Dewey, on April 27, in a statement to the New York Times, made headlines. The headlines stated: "State Leads in Care of Veterans, Dewey Says in 'Report to People,'" and in the New York Times Governor Dewey stated:

"The most careful planning for our returning veterans and the husbanding of our resources was, of course, uppermost in our minds. A million and a half of the sons and daughters of New York are in this war all over the world. Many of them who come home to us will have new physical handicaps and will be entitled to the best possible opportunities in civilian life.

"So New York led all forty-eight states in the Nation this year in providing for its war veterans"—quoting Governor Dewey—"Upon my recommendation, there was created a separate division of the state government devoted exclusively to veterans' affairs. With a $2,800,000 appropriation this division will have an office in every county to bring the service of the government to the veteran right where he lives. There will be trained counselors to advise the returning veteran and his family on their problems and to put them in touch with expert services in every field, from factory jobs to agricultural opportunities, from psychiatric services to government business loans.

"I have insisted that the cold, mechanistic treatment of veterans and their families as objects of charity by a distant bureaucracy shall not and must not be permitted in our state. To direct this service, I have appointed Mr. Edward Neary, long a distinguished public servant in our state, former State Commander of the American Legion, a veteran of the last war, who knows from personal experience the different types of problems our veterans will face."

The bill which I introduced, along with my colleagues, carries exactly similar provisions to those they have in the state of New York legislation. In addition to that, one of the greatest educational leaders in this country recently made a statement in the New York Times, on April 23, and I refer to Preisdent James B. Conant, of Harvard University. He stated, quoting:

"Declaring this country dare not neglect the talents and skills of an entire generation, President James B. Conant of Harvard holds that American educational institutions must make up the devastating shortage of trained men for civilian occupations resulting from the war by helping servicemen to resume their education after the war.

"His views are contained in a booklet, 'What About Harvard?' which was prepared for the armed forces.

"'The task is at once individual and collective,' Mr. Conant said. 'It is shared by thousands of institutions, universities, colleges, junior-colleges and schools of every type, including vocational, trade, and technical.

"No one institution can accommodate more than a small fraction of those veterans whose education should be continued, but none will do its duty which does not endeavor to use its facilities to the maximum and does not face squarely the responsibilities of a new and vast educational job.'

"The two major obligations challenging each institution, he said, were:

"To adapt its normal requirements to the individual conditions of those who have spent two, three, four and even five years in the Army and the Navy.

"To give its soundest advice to every member of the armed forces who seek information; to tell him whether or not it is to his own interest to undertake the line of study which he has planned. If a man spends years struggling with a subject unsuited to his talents and unlikely to lead toward his success in later life, he will have a just grievance against our educational system. A democracy cannot be built by putting square pegs in round holes.

"Dr. Conant outlined measures adopted by Harvard to meet veterans' requirements with the cardinal aim of flexibility. The steps include a calendar year of three instead of two terms, a more flexible system of admission to all schools, a more flexible system of credits toward A.B. and S.B. degrees under which most members of the armed services will find they have earned some credits and the appointment of counselors for veterans."

We find this same law, gentlemen, in the state of New Jersey, and in this connection there appeared in the New York Times under date of April 24 an article which reads as follows:

"Veterans are prompt in repaying funds borrowed under the state veteran's loan plan, Dr. Charles R. Erdman, Commissioner of the Department of Economic Development, reported today. The plan had been in operation ten months.

"Application by 316 veterans for a total of $637,925 had been approved up to last week by the Veterans' Loan Authority. Several loans already have been repaid in full, and additional veterans are asking permission to make repayments ahead of schedule, according to Erdman. A new act sets six years as the time limit within which loans must be repaid.

"Dr. Erdman declared that much of the credit for the excellent record of loan repayments can be traced to the local banks and business counselors. Actual loans up to $3,000 are made by the bank, with the state, through the Veterans Loan Authority, guaranteeing up to 90 per cent of their unpaid balances. Sixty-three veterans, desiring a total of $138,820 have been rejected . . ." up to date, according to the veterans administration report in the state of New Jersey.

This bill I introduced, creating this authority, provides that the authority, in its discretion, through the counselors that it appoints, has a right to decide whether or not that veteran is in need of assistance and help. I am very sorry that this bill is dying in committee. I wish there was something I could do.

I have no other alternative, Mr. President and members of the Senate, than to offer the following resolution for the discharge of the Committee on Banking from further consideration of Senate Bill 379, and I move its immediate adoption.

RESOLUTION

TO DISCHARGE THE COMMITTEE ON BANKING FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 379

Mr. GOURLEY offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, April 30, 1945.

Resolved, That the Committee on Banking be discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 379, entitled "An act to assist veterans; creating the Pennsylvania Authority for Vocational Aid, Financial Assistance and Training for Men and Women Honorably Discharged from the Armed Services as a body corporate and politic with power to give financial aid and assistance to veterans; prescribing the terms and conditions under which such loans shall be made; conferring powers and imposing duties upon certain State officers; providing for the cooperation of other State agencies and private industry; making an appropriation for the capitalization of such authority; and prescribing penalties," said bill having been in the hands of said Committee for a period of ten days and more, having been referred on February 21, 1945.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. GOURLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would like to comment on the resolution and on the remarks made by the gentleman from Washington, Senator Gourley.

When the gentleman from Washington, Senator Gourley, introduced Senate Bill 379 he was very sincere, and still is, in his desire to prepare adequate machinery for taking care of the returning veteran, and especially the veteran who needs additional rehabilitation before he can be properly returned to civilian life. That has been a problem that has occupied the minds of a lot of sincere civilians who are holding various public offices.

It so happens that through a chain of circumstances, over which I had no control, I happen to be chairman of the State American Legion Legislative Committee, and during this 1945 session we have met every week to consider legislation beneficial to the veteran. On this committee are members of the Senate and members of the House, from both major political parties. The men who are on this committee are men who have been members of the American Legion for a good many years; most of them are carrying cards which show they have been members of the American Legion for twenty-five consecutive years; many of them have served on executive committees of the American Legion throughout the Commonwealth for at least ten or fifteen of those twenty-five years.

With this American Legion Legislative Committee as affiliates are legislative committees from the Veterans of Foreign Wars, from the Disabled American Veterans, from the Spanish American War Veterans and from the auxiliaries of those various service units. They are dedicated to one purpose only, and that is to see to it that every feasible piece of legislation that can be passed to assist the veteran is passed, and they work in conjunction with the legislative committees of those various service organizations in Washington so that the federal program can be coordinated with the state program.

The bill introduced by the gentleman from Washington, Senator Gourley, indicates an idea that was very carefully considered by the American Legion and the associated legislative committees, and they were of the opinion that the matters contained in that particular piece of proposed legislation were more or less federal matters which should be incorporated into the G. I. Bill of Rights. We all know, from a perusal of the newspapers, that the G. I. Bill of Rights is at the present moment being very carefully considered by the federal legislative body. The chairman of the veterans' committee in Washington, Congressman Rankin, has expressed in the newspapers his opinion that the present G. I. Bill could stand—and I am not quoting him verbatim; I am giving the gist of his opinion as I recall it—he said the G. I. Bill could stand some repairs, some alterations, some improvements.

The state of Pennsylvania for generations has been very proud of its sons who have participated in the various battles in which this Commonwealth has taken part. Repeatedly we have had the privilege of having, as the Chief Executive of the Commonwealth, one who has represented the Commonwealth on the field of battle. In this present administration we have a Governor who is a veteran of four wars, and who had the rare privilege and the honor of leading Pennsylvania's own division in the First World War, who led that division, Mr. President, in the Border Campaign, and who fought with that division in the Philippine campaign, a man who at heart is loyal to the soldier, loyal to the veteran, and a loyal and enthusiastic supporter of the things that the veteran and the returned soldier needs.

Why, bless your heart, Mr. President, there is one way in the world that you can get the unbounded enthusiastic cooperation of the Chief Executive of this Commonwealth, and that is to go in there and say, "Governor, they are hurting a soldier," and he is on his white horse and on your side in a moment, and everybody in Pennsylvania knows that if ever our Chief Executive has what might be called a weak spot, it is his unbounded love of the army, the veteran and the ex-soldier.

Here in my hand I hold a list of bills that have been discussed by the legislative committees of the ex-servicemen's organizations. Many of them have been passed by the House and are in the Senate; many of them have been passed by the Senate and are in the House; many of them have been passed by both the House and the Senate and are on the Governor's desk, and a large percentage of them have already been signed by the Chief Executive.

Pennsylvania is going to be proud of what it has done for the ex-serviceman during this 1945 session, and the ex-serviceman is going to be proud of Pennsylvania because it recognizes the responsibility that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania owes to its sons and daughters who have participated with the armed forces.

It has always been the contention of the service organizations that in a large measure the responsibility for the handling of veteran's affairs is primarily a federal responsibility. The question of state veteran's hospitals has been passed over because there again we believe that is a federal project. The question of vocational training has already been met in this Legislature, and an attempt has been made to work it out so that it will be cohesive and will function in joint cooperation with our state educational bureaus. The question of appropriations has also been considered. One of the things we fear in the handling of veterans' affairs is a miscellaneous assortment of boards, bureaus and commissions charged with the responsibility of looking after the interests of veterans, because then suddenly you will discover it has become everybody's business and nobody's responsibility, and that is the thing the American Legion is trying to avoid.

The members of this committee, who have worked hard and sincerely in their desire to put across a veteran's program, are appreciative of the cooperation and sincerity of the gentleman from Washington county. We have tried to tell him that in our opinion his bill should be in Congress and not in the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We do not see eye to eye with what they do in the city of Washington, but we do not quite agree that this is a thing that Pennsylvania should do. When the bill was referred to the legislative committees of the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Disabled American Veterans and the United Spanish American War Veterans, they were all of the opinion this bill should not be endorsed by the Legion, or by these other service organizations, because it did not comply with the type of legislation they felt the state should adopt.

Therefore, I want to say to the gentleman from Washington, when he makes this motion to discharge this committee, of which I am not a member, he is asking them to endorse a bill that has not as yet been sold to the very group he desires to help. It is not because they are turning their backs on the desires of the gentleman from Washington to help—we know he wants to help and we know his sincerity of purpose—but I want to say to him just as sincerely that his bill has been very seriously considered and that we do not approve of the type of legislation it proposes. We think we should let Congress, which has already recognized the weakness of the G. I. Bill, take care of it there, and that is why we have deliberately ignored his bill.

It is not the fault of the distinguished gentleman from Lebanon county, whose sympathetic reaction to the bill introduced by the gentleman from Washington, Senator Gourley, is well known all over this Senate. The gentleman from Lebanon would have liked to have released this bill, if it would have accomplished the things the gentleman from Washington desires it to accomplish, but in face of the fact that the gentleman from Washington could not even sell it to the service organizations it was supposed to help, you can not blame the Committee on Banking for keeping it buried.

It is not a question of the committee refusing to consider the bill; it is a question of the committee having considered the bill and not approving of the merits of that particular piece of legislation.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I wish I could believe everything said by the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker, but unfortunately I can not. He gets up on the floor here and has the audacity to say that the state will cooperate with anything the government does for the soldiers, when we have a bill on our Calendar today, namely, House Bill No. 826, and I want to read one section from it. We all know, when this war is over, there are going to be many health programs for the returning veterans. Section 3 of this bill provides:

"Section 3. The Department of Health . . . . shall be required to comply with any regulations instructions, orders, or directives for the establishment of any specific standards . . . ."

Now, Senator Walker, I wish that what you said was true. Today we are going to vote on this bill, and if you believe in what you say, you will vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, who refuses at any time to stoop to politics, even on the floor of the Senate, was making that statement—not for political purposes? The bill which I think he refers to, House Bill No. 826, is known in the back alleys of the Capitol as the Dr. Stewart bill. Is that correct?

Mr. BARR. I do not know the name.

Mr. WALKER. Apparently he does not visit the back alleys. The question the gentleman raises is that there is a hiatus between the allegata and probata, . . . if I should vote in the affirmative on the bill he has just mentioned.

The whole question involved in the Dr. Stewart Bill, House Bill No. 826, has nothing to do with the veteran's program or with the bill which the gentleman from Washington is so sincerely trying to get passed.

May I gently point out to the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, that the question of hospitalization for veterans is exclusively a federal project, and from the very beginning of the foundation of soldier organizations, which took place in France early in 1919, the entire program of hospitalization was laid at the door of Congress, because they felt that is where it belonged, and I want to say, in spite of all the newspaper propaganda to the contrary, I think they have done a grand job in handling federal hospitalization. There have been mistakes made, but that is only the human element that enters into any project of this type, and the veterans administration has sincerely devoted its time to assist the veterans.

The bill which will take that money out from under the Department of Health has nothing to do with the resolution introduced by the gentleman from Washington, Senator Gourley; it is merely a very friendly gesture on the part of the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, to point out the idiosyncrasies of a left-handed Senator.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair calls to the attention of some of the members of the Senate that the motion to discharge the Committee of Banking from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 379 is the order of business before the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. That is right, Mr. President.

Mr. GOURLEY. Mr. President, I know my friend Senator Walker chooses his words with a great deal of care and caution; I know him to be an able lawyer.

I understood him to say it was his opinion that the responsibility for looking after the men and women discharged from the services was that of the federal government, and that the responsibility should not fall on the shoulders of the state of Pennsylvania to provide them with any relief or assistance which they might need that can not be secured today under the G. I. Bill of Rights. From his statement it apparently does not exist. He, by inference at least, admits to me as a lawyer that the provisions of the G. I. Bill are not sufficient to provide the remedies and relief we need.

I therefore think it is our duty, without question of doubt, if the G. I. Bill does not have provisions which we need, that we should make them available for those who are going to need help or assistance.

This bill, which I introduced, specifically provides that if the G. I. Bill of Rights makes available the assistance that any man or woman might require, then they are not eligible for any relief under the so-called G. I. Bill which I introduced. Therefore I think it is our duty to pass this bill. Then, if Congress amends or corrects the conditions which exist, the soldier or the woman does not need to ask the state for aid, so in consistency, Mr. President, I would like to ask my colleagues to vote in favor of this resolution.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I want to point out to the gentleman from Washington, Senator Gourley, with regard to my statement concerning the care and maintenance of veterans, my specific statement was—and I think the record will bear me out—that with regard to the hospitalization of veterans, that was strictly a federal program and the state was not participating in it. That was the gist of the idea that I wanted to put across.

Surely, the action of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, under the suggestions or recommendations of a number of members of the House and the Senate, from both political parties, on all of these bills that have been introduced and passed and signed by the Governor, would indicate that Pennsylvania is aware of its responsibilities and is taking care of them in every way they think feasible.

What I have been trying to point out to the gentleman from Washington is that his bill, which is in the Committee on Banking, was reviewed by the legislative committees of the several service organizations, and they, comprising both political parties, were of the opinion that the bill came under the heading of what should be a federal project and not a state project and, therefore, they did not approve the bill.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I have listened with a great deal of interest to the remarks made by my friend and colleague from Washington county, Senator Gourley, but as will occur now and then, the best of friends can not always agree. I agree with Senator Gourley, and with every member of the Senate, that nothing that we might do for the veterans who are giving their all would be too much.

I have been particularly interested, since the beginning of the war, in the establishment of a second injury fund, which, if enacted into law, would enable those veterans that come back home maimed to obtain gainful employment, because I think that nothing will be so helpful to the rehabilitation of those boys who come back maimed in some manner or another as gainful employment.

I took this matter up with my Congressman at home, I sold him on the proposition, and he introduced a bill in Congress and he kept me informed of the progress of his bill, and he told me that he had received a report that this was a matter that Congress did not care to act upon, but thought that it was a matter that should be taken care of by the states, inasmuch as some twenty-eight states had already set up second injury funds. I therefore introduced a bill in the Senate, and I have reason to believe that that bill will become law.

I mention that only because of the fact that there are certain things which should be done by Congress, and certain things that should be done by the states. If the G. I. Bill is inadequate, as my friend and colleague from Washington county has pointed out, it does occur to me that a more effective way of taking care of the veterans, not only from Pennsylvania, but from all over the United States, to whom we are likewise indebted, would be a resolution memorializing Congress to put the G. I. Bill in the very best shape that it can be put in, because, while we are indebted to our own veterans from Pennsylvania, we are certainly indebted likewise to all of the veterans, every one of whom is a citizen of the United States.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. GOURLEY and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—17

Barr,	Haluska,	Leader,	Rosenfeld,
Coleman,	Holland,	Margie,	Ruth,
Cox,	Jaspan,	McCreesh,	Stiefel,

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HALUSKA asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Butler, Mr. Carr.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Butler permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CARR. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Does the Chairman of the Committee on Welfare, Public Assistance and Pensions have in his committee Senate Bill No. 525, sponsored by the gentleman from Luzerne, Senator Jones, and myself.

Mr. CARR. I do not know it by number.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EDMONDS. I will, sir.

Mr. HALUSKA. Does the gentleman from Montgomery have Senate Bill No. 525 in the Committee on Welfare, Public Assistance and Pensions?

Mr. EDMONDS. I am sure, Mr. President, that bill was reported out. I will give you the date. That bill was considered by the committee at a meeting at which Senator Homsher was serving as Chairman. It was reported out, and when reported out it was recommitted by vote of the Senate, and since that time it has been resting in the committee. Every time I have called a meeting of the committee—and there will be a meeting tomorrow—I brought up the bill and asked whether anyone wanted to report it out. So far there has been no call of that kind.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Homsher.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lancaster permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOMSHER. I will.

Mr. HALUSKA. Will the gentleman from Lancaster tell me what action was taken on Senate Bill No. 525 while he was acting in behalf of the gentleman from Montgomery as Chairman of the Committee on Welfare, Public Assistance and Pensions?

Mr. HOMSHER. Senate Bill No. 525 was reported out on the floor of the Senate and placed on the Calendar.

Mr. HALUSKA. Does the gentleman from Lancaster have knowledge of the fact that the bill went back to the committee for further study?

Mr. HOMSHER. The bill was recommitted to the committee, for what purpose I can not say.

Mr. HALUSKA. Does the gentleman from Lancaster have any knowledge whether or not the bill had any further study after it was recommitted.

Mr. HOMSHER. Unfortunately, I have attended but one meeting held by the committee on Welfare, Public Assistance and Pensions, since that date, and I do not know what action was taken in the committee.

Mr. HALUSKA. Senate Bill No. 525 was sponsored by the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Jones, and myself. It was introduced on March 14, came out of committee as committed, had first reading March 26, and the following day was referred back to committee, with the statement that it would be studied further and then re-reported out again.

I understand this is the last week of this session. If this bill has any hope whatsoever of coming out of committee, it must come out today, otherwise it can not pass both branches of this Legislature.

This bill deals directly with the bond that the indigent must sign before they can obtain any relief. I have tried for a number of years to impress my colleagues with the importance of the elimination of this accursed bond, and I was a happy man the day that I came to my desk and looked at my history and found this bill reported out, with the thought in mind it would pass that same week, but unfortunately for those for whom I am speaking, the bill was given one reading and then sent back to committee and up until this time it has peacefully rested in that same committee. Nobody seems to know just where it is or what might happen to it.

It is not my intention to speak long, but, for the final time in this session, I shall try briefly to impress you with the importance of this proposed piece of legislation. The people this bill affects are not here, they can not hear me talk; they are back home. They are old people, men and women who have given up sons and daughters to fight this very war we are in; men who have lost all they have had because of illness or age; men and women who are now in the sunset of life and have but a few years to live, and who, through no fault of their own, are dependent upon us to keep body and soul together.

Permit me Mr. President, to read to you part of a letter I received this morning from the city controller of the city of Johnstown, concerning a friend of his, wherein he states: "This case involves a mother who was forced to ask for mother's assistance during the depression days in order to keep body and soul together and take care of her three children. Her son sold newspapers on the streets of Johnstown during the days that she was receiving relief, and with those few pennies that young lad made, he kept up two $500 policies so that in case he might die his mother, a widow, might be able to live. This boy was killed in combat while defending the freedom, liberties and advantage of our country on German soil on the day of February 9, 1945."

Mr. President, the two $500 policies this boy paid for by selling newspapers are being held up because the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has notified the Department of Public Assistance that they can not pay the face of the policies of $500 each, because both of them amount to over $500. Here is a widow back home who raised this boy, a boy who sold newspapers to pay the policy premiums, and now he is dead, and we here sit by idly and permit the Department of Public Assistance to reach out and grab, if you please, that last dollar.

I was hopeful that once and for all we would settle this issue. We have men here who wave the flag, wave it every day, but when it comes to supporting a bill of this type they sit by idly. Now they sit by idly because the people this bill affects can not come here and give us dinners, they can not take us out on parties, so we sit by idly and they are the forgotten men and forgotten women.

I dislike very much to take this action, Mr. President, but it is my only alternative, to ask that the Committee on Welfare, Public Assistance and Pensions be discharged and a record vote be taken to determine once again just who might be the friends of those who can not take care of themselves.

Therefore, Mr. President, I offer the following resolution and ask its immediate adoption.

RESOLUTION

TO DISCHARGE THE COMMITTEE ON WELFARE, PUBLIC ASSISTANCE AND PENSIONS FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 525

Mr. HALUSKA offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, April 30, 1945.

Resolved, That the Committee on Welfare, Public Assistance and Pensions be discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 525, entitled "An act relating to the support of indigent persons publicly cared for or assisted; providing for the support of such persons by certain relatives, and for the recovery of public moneys expended for care and assistance from the property and estates of such persons; providing for guardians of the person and property of such persons; providing for the arrest and seizure and sale of the property of deserters; and providing procedure", said bill having been in the hands of said Committee for a period of ten days and more, having been referred on March 14, 1945.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question?

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, it seems to me that what has occurred within the last hour on the floor of the Senate, with the repeated motions to discharge committees, becomes a very apparent move by the other side for apparently political purposes. I have no objection to these motions being made for purely political purposes, if that is the reason, but it seems to me that this motion on this bill is very ill-timed and unfair, in view of the statement of the gentleman from Montgomery, Senator Edmonds, in which he related the history of this bill and in which he said, as chairman of the committee, that he had since its recommittal drawn this bill to the attention of his committee, and that committee apparently did not desire to act upon the bill. It seems to me that this particular motion on this particular bill is very unfair and a motion which does not do justice either to the chairman of the committee or the members of the committee.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I certainly regret that the gentleman from Lehigh felt compelled to make the remarks that my motion was ill-timed and that I should not have made this motion. I find no fault whatsoever with the chairman of any committee, I am not criticizing the chairman of the committee, but I do find fault with that committee as a whole. The gentleman from Lehigh stated very specifically that the chairman had presented this bill before the committee but the committee itself has failed to act.

I am aware of the fact that this motion is bad—it is bad for every man that votes against it, because it is affecting the men who can not come here and fight for themselves. I disliked making that motion, but had that bill come out of committee, there would be no reason to make such a motion.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, in answer to my friend, the Senator from Lehigh, Senator Tallman, he said we have been standing up here for the past hour for political reasons, making motions to discharge committees from further consideration. Frankly, every motion made dealt with a very important problem, and for his information and for the information of all the Republican Senators, may I say that with respect to Senate Bill 439, as to which bill I asked that the committee be discharged from further consideration, that bill was not introduced by a Democrat, but was introduced by a Republican, Senator Farrell, so as to curry favor with the firemen of the city of Philadelphia, knowing full well that the bill would never be reported out and passed by both branches of the Legislature and signed by the Governor. I have in mind the bill which deals with a three platoon system.

I will give it to you right, so there is no question about it, and I will not kid or joke about it at all, but if you want facts you will have them.

This bill asked for three shifts for firemen. As it is now they have two shifts, one for fourteen hours and one for ten hours. That bill was introduced by a Republican, and not a Democrat—so that it is not politics on our side—after having made a definite promise to them that the bill would be reported out and that the Senate would act favorably and it would go to the House.

Let us be honest about it. The other side has been playing the game of politics since the beginning of this session. Governor Martin has promised much, with respect to the F.E.P.C. bill. In fact, politics has been mentioned with respect to labor, with respect to the school teachers, with respect to the cooperatives. What has happened? Nothing. Politics has been played. They played it up in the newspapers because they have a friendly press. We, unfortunately, do not have a friendly press, and consequently in the eyes of the public it appears that much has been done by Governor Martin and his group. Let us not kid ourselves, Mr. President and members of the Senate. We are not playing politics, we are not promising anything, because we do not have the votes—and when we did promise, we showed them back in 1937, when we had both a Democratic House and Senate, that we were capable of fulfilling our promises—but our Republican House today, and our Republican Senate, can not fulfill the promises made in the platform of Governor Martin and the Republicans.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HALUSKA and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—19

Barr,	Haluska,	Leader,	Ruth,
Coleman,	Holland,	Margie,	Stiefel,
Cox	Jaspan,	McCreesh,	Troutman,
DiSilvestro,	Jones,	McGinnis,	Woodring,
Gourley,	Klein,	Rosenfeld,

NAYS—28

Becker,	Ealy,	Kephart,	Taylor,
Berger,	Edmonds,	Letzler,	Thomas,

So the question was determined in the negative.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to ask for a leave of absence.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. COLEMAN asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. DENT, on account of death in his family.

RECESS

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until 9:30 o'clock p. m.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Charles H. Ealy) in the Chair.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President and members of the Senate, as we sit here tonight in the Senate Chamber, in the mountains of Italy an American division is carrying on the fight for an economic way of life. This division, consisting of men from all states of the Union, has fought through one of the severest winters that Italy has ever experienced. In the mountains their only means of supply has been pack mules, they have lived on K rations, they have lived in the snow without shelter They have had to perform one of the most thankless tasks in the scheme of war. Any of you who have served in any war know that a delaying action is very thankless, but very necessary, because in the mountains of Italy sixteen divisions of the German army have been held back, delayed from going to Germany to bolster up the German forces.

This outfit, this division, is composed of Americans, Americans who, when they come back to America, unless we pass the proper type of legislation, will not have the same right to take their places in our economic way of life as their white brothers. The 92nd Division, which in World War 1 and in World War 2 covered themselves with glory, is a division consisting of American Negroes. When these American Negroes come back, fighting for an economic way of life, they are coming back, unless changes are made, to a life where they do not have the same right to a job as their white brothers.

Talk as you may, we all admit this war is a war to preserve a system or a way of life. When it is won, shall those who have died, those who come back, shall they share in that way of life? Oh, Mr. President, in America we speak much of economic democracy, of free enterprise, of the right to work. We know that in America in past years the Negro has not had a chance to take his part in our economic way of life. He, because he has a different colored skin, has been denied that right; although he may have the ability, yes, and the education, to fill a position, when he applies for a job his color is the one reason why they will not employ him.

You who sit in this Senate might say that this should be accomplished by education, but in America it is a government of law, and by laws we govern and correct any evils that may tear down our Constitution. That is why, Mr. President, tonight I am going to ask for the discharge of the Committee on Labor and Industry. They have had in that committee a bill to correct this condition, a bill which would give the right to the men who have fought for that right, who have fought to preserve the freedom of the world, the right to come back to America to work, the right to enjoy an economic democracy without any strings attached, regardless of race, color or creed, and that is what we in America want, that is what the people of America want, and that is what the people of Pennsylvania want.

Pennsylvania, the cradle of freedom. If the voice of the people of Pennsylvania were heard, I know that in this Senate this motion would receive an overwhelming majority. Under the control of a committee, a bill is kept in this committee and we in the Senate can not stand up and vote as our convictions dictate.

Therefore, Mr. President, I am not doing this to criticize the committee, but to help the committee. I know this committee would like to have this bill come out, but for some reason or another it has not come out. That, is why I say that we, the fifty members of this Senate should right this minute constitute ourselves a committee of the whole and vote to have this bill come out so that every member of this Senate can be counted, and in voting I want you to remember the Negroes who died in this war and in other wars, the Negro who was fighting, fighting for our way of life. I might say to you, just last Tuesday I read a letter from one of the commanding officers of the 92nd Division, who happens to be my nephew, and in this letter he said to me, "I do not know of any soldiers in this war who are doing a better job. There is one thing that is worrying them; is this way of life that they are fighting for going to be given to them when they come back, or is it going to be denied them."

That, my friends, and members of the Senate, is what we are going to vote on tonight, whether or not these millions of Negroes serving in the United States Army are fighting for the same way of life that we talk about but do not give them.

Mr. President, I offer the following resolution on behalf of Senator Rosenfeld and myself.

RESOLUTION

TO DISCHARGE THE COMMITTEE ON LABOR AND INDUSTRY FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 566

Messrs. HOLLAND and ROSENFELD offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, April 30, 1945.

Whereas, Senate Bill No. 566 entitled "An act to eliminate and prevent discrimination in employment because of race, creed, color, national origin or ancestry, by employers, labor organizations, or other persons; creating the State Fair Employment Practice Commission as an independent administrative commission of the State Government; prescribing its powers and duties; defining discriminatory employment practices; authorizing the issuance and enforcement of cease and desist orders; providing for appeals to and conferring powers and imposing duties on the Courts of Common Pleas and the Superior Court; and prescribing penalties," was referred to the Committee on Labor and Industry on March 20, 1945, and has not been acted upon by said Committee, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Commitee on Labor and Industry is hereby discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 566 entitled "An act to eliminate and prevent discrimination in employment because of race, creed, color, national origin or ancestry, by employers, labor organizations, or other persons; creating the State Fair Employment Practice Commission as an independent administrative commission of the State Government; prescribing its powers and duties; defining discriminatory employment practicess; authorizing the issuance and enforcement of cease and desist orders; providing for appeals to and conferring powers and imposing duties on the Courts of Common Pleas and the Superior Court; and prescribing penalties."

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I am glad to learn of the interest in the colored folk of Pennsylvania of at least some of the members on the Democratic side. My memory goes back to the year 1937, I believe it was, when a measure pertaining to the laboring people of Pennsylvania was introduced, and a gentleman for whom I have the greatest respect, the Honorable Homer Brown, a member of the House, introduced an amendment to what we then knew as the Little Wagner Labor Relations Act. The amendment simply provided that there should be no discrimination on account of race, creed or color.

As I recall, the then dominant party in this chamber unanimously opposed that amendment; the then minority party in the Senate unanimously decided to stand by that amendment. I know whereof I speak, because I was the lone minority member on the committee of conference appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate. The minority member on the part of the Senate stood with the Honorable Homer Brown, as did likewise the minority member from the House, and notwithstanding the pressure to yield, we stood, and only because we stood is that amendment now in the Labor Relations Act, that there shall be no discrimination on account of race, creed or color.

As Senator Tallman well stated a few minutes ago, I am moved to believe that these motions to discharge committees are purely political. The present motive is to lead the colored people of Pennsylvania to believe that only the people on the other side are concerned about their welfare. That is not true. We have in my own community colored people whom I respect, and who respect me. There are people in that community, colored people, whom I am glad to employ, and they are glad to work for me, and I always get full service.

I am inclined to think, Mr. President, this motion is made for purely political reasons.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I am glad to find there is at least one member on the other side that feels like we do on this matter, or at least in helping to get a bill out upon the floor that will deal with this problem once and for all.

If we are going back into history, I would remind the gentleman from Blair that in 1935, under Democratic sponsorship, the first equal rights bill in the state of Pennsylvania was passed, and it has been only because of lack of enforcement in succeeding years that this bill has been just a piece of paper.

The gentleman from Blair calls our attention to the fact that in 1937 we had the so-called Little Wagner Act up before the General Assembly for consideration. The primary purpose at that time was to write into law a statute that would guarantee to labor certain rights given them by the Constitution of the United States. When the amendment was offered it served to destroy the entire purpose of the original act. It was not defeated because it gave a worthy group of citizens rights that they are entitled to without any law being passed, but it was promoted and sponsored by the Minority Party at that time to endanger the passage of the so-called Little Wagner Act. In other words, it was the well known legislative trick of adding an amendment to kill a bill.

Tonight the issue is square; it is one that needs no elaboration from me. I am co-sponsor of the bill. The only reason the bill was introduced in the Senate was because we noticed, from the actions of the House, that the Brown bill, the one and only decent fair employment practice act before this Assembly, was going to be defeated in committee. We therefore introduced a like measure into the Senate.

The question tonight is not whether or not we have been wrong in the past, or whether or not the now Majority Party has been wrong in the past; the question before the members of the Senate tonight is whether this is the right or the wrong thing to do. The vote does not measure up as to whether I was wrong yesterday or you were wrong; it measures up to whether I am right tonight or you are right.

We know that the Lord, in his goodness, created all men equal, but after their creation man-made laws have made races inequal, and so we try here tonight, by the passage of this bill, by the forceful maneuver that we are now attempting, to bring this bill out before the Senate for a vote, to sort of equalize the races. No legislation passed in this General Assembly will equalize individuals, or put us on the same plane.

This bill not only deals with the Negro problem—it deals with problems affecting all minorities—and to hold up only the Negro problem is to call attention to one particular phase of the bill and, therefore, use that as a lever to either defeat or to pass the bill. We ask for the passage of this legislation because it affects all of us, whether we belong to a group that is in a minority, because of religious belief in certain communities and in certain spheres of influence, whether we belong to minorities because of racial background, or whether we belong to minorities because of color.

An old colored gentleman that worked with me years ago in a rubber plant said to me one day, after a heated debate upon the election of a committeeman to represent a certain department in a union conference—a certain young man, a colored boy, was a candidate, and he was not defeated because he did not have the ability; he was defeated because of his color—and later on in the afternoon I met this old gentleman, who was raised in the South, whose parents were slaves, and he said to me, "Johnny, have you ever noticed cows grazing in a field?" I said, "yes". He said, "have you ever noticed that cows are of different colors; there are black and white cows, there are brown and white cows, there are all black cows? Did you ever notice how they all graze peacefully in the same field?" And I said, "yes", not at that time catching the significance, and he said to me, "why can't we who are created, too, in colors the same as cows, why can't we graze in the same fields?"

After all, all this bill does is to say that a man may, regardless of his race, regardless of his color, regardless of his creed, have the same chance to graze in the same field, that is all. Life at its best is only a short game. You can not deny human beings, created in the image of God, the right to provide for their families the things their families are justly entitled to.

You say, why is this motion coming at this late date. It is coming because we understand this is the last week of this session, and if we do not do something tonight, then this abominable condition will continue at least for a period of another two years, and so we say to the members of the Senate, forget your political party adherences, forget the things you might feel you might owe to any political leader, and say to yourselves, "do I at this time owe something to the men who helped to make it possible for me to live here in this great county," and they are no lesser men than we, regardless of their color.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, here tonight we are seeing practiced one of those little political tricks. Here is a bill that was introduced in the Senate, according to the History, on March 20. Nobody ever knew it was there. I attend two meetings of the Committee on Labor and Industry, of which I happen to be a member—and, Mr. President, the very man who made this motion, the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, is a member of that committee, and he never asked for consideration of this bill while I was there.

The gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, knows that there is a tradition against the discharge of a bill from a Senate committee; that has not been done in the memory of anybody in this Senate tonight, I do not think. The Senate has been controlled by both parties during the time I have been here, Mr. President, and never during my career has a committee been discharged from consideration of a bill.

This vote tonight is not on this bill, and the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, knows that very well. He knows he made no attempt to get this bill out of committee, or even to have it considered, but he has seized on what he thinks is an opportune time, Mr. President, to play what he thinks is a little smart politics. He knows very well the Senate of Pennsylvania does not discharge committees, and has never discharged committees, and he knows the vote on a resolution to discharge a committee in this body is not a vote on a bill, and I say, Mr. President, it is silly. I think he is kidding nobody but himself, and I know the folks here tonight are too smart to be fooled by a political trick of that nature.

I ask the members of the Senate to vote down this resolution.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Labor and Industry.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Potter, Senator Berger, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BERGER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HOLLAND. Will the gentleman from Potter tell me whether I did not, at the last meeting of the Committee on Labor and Industry, ask him if the committee was going to consider this bill?

Mr. BERGER. The gentleman from Allegheny did not.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, at the last meeting of the Committee on Labor and Industry I asked the chairman about a particular bill hiding in that committee, which was presented by Senator Rosenfeld and Senator Dent and myself, and the gentleman said he did not think it was a good bill and that they were not going to consider it. That was in the committee, and I certainly did not think I was dreaming.

I would like to answer the gentleman from Blair county and also the gentleman from Delaware county. The gentleman from Delaware said this is a political move. I agree with him, it is a political move. It is based on a political philosophy. We have been in this session for quite a few months, and while this session was going on the political philosophy of the Majority Party was working and we have passed bills to make richer the insurance companies; we have passed bills to make richer the bankers; we have passed bills to protect the utilities; we have passed bills to help the large trucking industries; we have passed bills to help practically everybody in Pennsylvania, groups in any of the particular industries.

We today on this side of the Senate have also a political philosophy. The political philosophy of the Democratic Party is the philosophy of the common man of America, of the little people of America, of the people of America that have been kicked around. Therefore, everything you do in here is politics or has a political tinge. You should have a right to your philosophy as much as I have a right to my philosophy.

I believe the best way of helping America is by recognizing the common man and raising up the common man to the dignity that he deserves in America. I happen to believe in the philosophy of Henry Wallace, if you may ask, that the common man is the only important person in the world. It has been the common man who has fought the wars and won them, it is the common man that built America with his hands, he built your bridges, your industries; everything that was done was done by the common man, because without labor you can not do anything.

This is not a bill to help the Negro; this is a bill to help all who labor in Pennsylvania. You and I know it has been the scheme of our system for years to keep a reservoir of cheap labor back and not give them a proper position in the economy of life. As long as you can keep a man, because of his color, from going into a mill and getting a job on the basis of his own ability, you know you are going to have that cheap reservoir of labor. That is what we want to break down. We want to break that down in Pennsylvania so that there shall not be any cheap reservoir of labor. Why should there be? He is just as much an American as you and I are and he has the right, if he has the ability to do a job, to be given the right to do that job. That is all we are asking for. We are asking that you in Pennsylvania abide by the Constitution of the United States, which says that all men are created equal, and give them a fair right.

Call it politics if you want. Everything is politics. If the people today, who have been denied the right to work, use their political democracy that they should use, they will get an economic democracy. For years in America you know what has happened. Those who exercise politics went to the capitols of the forty-eight states and the national capitol and there, through their politics, had laws passed to help the manufacturers, the railroads and the utilities. They were the ones who had the political democracy of America.

But we are in a new era in America today, we are in a new era in the world, where the little man has come into his own, where the little man knows, in order to get economic democracy, he must control political democracy. Call it what you may. You who represent the big interests in your philosophy have played it for years and years and years. Why do some of the industrialists give millions of dollars to political campaigns? Do they do it because they love the little man? No, they do it because they know legislation will be passed to let them get richer and be able to give more money.

All we ask of you members of this Senate is to remember that there is someone else in America, there is a little man, a common man. I would like to have you go into our districts, yes, the districts that we are fighting now to help, go with me into the alleys of the South Side and see what is in the windows of the South Side—those are the people I am trying to help—and you will see in the windows of those houses in the alleys three, four, five, six, seven stars representing boys who are fighting for a way of life.

That is what we are doing tonight, fighting to let them realize their dreams in the fox holes, to make them realize they are coming home, coming home to a decent job and a decent living at decent wages, and a right to go in and ask for that job, where they will not say to him, "are you black or white; are you Jew or Gentile?" No, he will take him because he is an American, because America is all the minorities. All the minorities made America. They were in that crucible, and as that crucible was melted Americans came out. Every minority has contributed something to America—that is why America is great—and that is why we, the members of the Senate, who are enjoying the privilege of representing the people of Pennsylvania, in this great America of ours, that is why we must recognize the minorities who fought the wars of America, who built America, who made America, and see that they are not denied the right to work because they are unfortunate enough to have a different colored skin or believe in a different religion.

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President, I know the hour is late, and I do not mean to prolong this debate, but I feel I must make answer to my very close friend, the Majority Leader, the gentleman from Delaware, when he suggests that this move is a political move, when he suggests that the burden is on the sponsor of a bill to have that bill brought out, or on the committee member to have that bill brought out.

It all hearkens back to remarks I made on this same subject some few weeks ago, and which I am sorry have not yet been printed in the Journal so that I could read it and reiterate it word for word. My talk was on the committee system, as it has been practiced in this session and as it was practiced in the 1943 session, a system wherein most of the committees are permitted to pass upon only those bills which the committee chairman brings before them. It defeats the very purpose for which committees are set up; it deceives the citizenry of the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, who believe that all of the bills are being considered by all the members of the committees, which is not a fact. When I saw an exception to that practice—my friend from Clearfield, Senator Letzler, did have his committee pass upon every bill which was within his committee—I rose on the floor and commended that gentleman and thankked him, and told him that he, at least, had done, to my notion, a proper job as a committee chairman.

I am not taking issue against any particular individual. My complaint is with the system generally. I think that when bills are sponsored and submitted to a committee chairman, that chairman owes it, not to the sponsor alone, but to the people of Pennsylvania generally, to call that bill up for consideration. Had that been done in this case, the committee could have acted upon it, and whether it would have been brought upon the floor of the Senate or not is almost immaterial to the point I am trying to make, which is that the burden is not on the sponsor of the bill. The burden is not on my friend, Senator Holland from Allegheny, who I think did at the last meeting of the committee, of which I am a member, ask that this bill be considered. I remember distinctly that he spoke about the Brown fair employment practice bill, but that is immaterial. It is not his duty or my duty, as individuals, to ask that bills be considered by committees and committee chairmen. Bills ought to be presented before the committee members, so that they can act on all of them.

So far as being a political gesture by the members on this side, maybe it is and maybe it is not, but I make this challenge to the members on the majority side: support this resolution, vote "aye" for this resolution to discharge this committee, and then the bill will be before the Senate and we can act upon it and then by our votes, we can show you whether we are sincerely interested in this bill or not.

Mr. BERGER. In order that the record might be entirely correct on this, I want to call to the attention of both Senator Woodring and Senator Holland—Senator Dent had left the meeting, as I recollect—at the conclusion of the business of the meeting of the Committee on Labor and Industry we were sitting at a table, and, mark you, a number of the members had left, when Senator Holland said to me, and I believe I quote him correctly, "How about the F.E.P.C. bill?" I replied that we already had temporarily postponed action on Senate Bill No. 444, which seemed to meet with nobody's approval, and that the same subject matter of 566—I believe that is the correct number, Mr. President—was contained in another bill under consideration in the House, to which—I think Senator Holland will agree with this—he acquiesced.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President and members of the Senate, so that there will not be any question about our sincerity, and so that there will not be any talk from the other side about this being purely politics, I think we can do what we have often done in the past. This is a subject that I think we have all heard about, that a lot of us know about, and that some of us have studied very carefully. We are all familiar with it, I think.

If I may so suggest to the Chairman of the Committee on Labor and Industry, now would be a very good time to call a five minute recess and have the committee meet and consider this bill.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I had no intention of saying anything about this bill, but I can not sit idly by and let the Majority Floor Leader create an impression that this was a staged demonstration. As a matter of fact, in the afternoon session, when we were on the business of resolutions, the Majority Floor Leader may recall, when Senator Haluska rose to move to discharge the committee from consideration of a bill on the relief bond, that I went to him, before he was recognized, and asked him if he would yield the floor to Senator Holland, because I felt, following the motion of Senator Gourley to discharge a committee from consideration of the G. I. Bill of Rights, that it followed in proper sequence that Senator Holland should make his motion on the fair employment practices bill, because of the definite relationship between the two bills. And so I want to dispel the erroneous belief that because there happen to be in the Senate of Pennsylvania tonight a number of people who have a personal and a particular interest in the bill, that this is part of a well defined plan on the part of the minority to make political capital.

Somebody walked up to Billy Bryan in his hey-day and thanked him for the influence he had exercised in bringing about the successful conclusion of some project for the public good, and Bryan replied, "why, I don't deserve any credit; all I did was to turn on the faucet and let public sentiment flow in."

Mr. President, our motion has for its purpose the affording of a medium for the oral expression of sentiment on this particular bill; that, and for no other reason.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I ask that the roll be verified.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Request has been made to have the roll verified.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. GOURLEY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. GOURLEY. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I assure you that anything I might state has nothing to do with politics. I speak to you from many years of representing labor unions, among which are the C.I.O., A. F. of L., United Mine Workers and independent labor unions.

In 1937 the Legislature passed an Act of Assembly which provided that no court had the right to issue a temporary injunction or a permanent injunction against any labor organization or any group of labor without the opportunity first being had for the representatives of industry and the representatives of labor to have a full hearing in court, with the right of industry and the right of labor to cross-examine any person or persons called by either party to the litigation which might be pending. That is the Act of 1937, P. L. 1198.

In 1939 the Legislature, apparently in its wise province at that time, amended the act of 1937 by providing that the provisions of the act of 1937, which I have referred to, would have no application to any labor dispute of any nature whatsoever which concerned, directly or indirectly, any labor agreement entered into between industry and a labor union, that it would have no application to any labor dispute where a majority of the employes have not joined the labor organization, or where two or more labor organizations were competing for membership in the union.

It further provided that the provisions of law which I referred to would have no application to any person or employe of labor organizations which engaged in any course of conduct which would tend to violate the provisions of the act of 1937, known as the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Act. It further provided that it would have no application to any labor disputes where any employe, or any of the employes, were acting in concert in an effort to seize, hold, damage or destroy the plant, equipment or property of any industry.

Gentlemen, none of us like to have the finger of accusation pointed at us, whether it is temporary or permanent in nature, without an opportunity first being had to be heard. It is very easy for any person to point the finger of suspicion or the finger of guilt at you, and if you do not have an opportunity to stand on your feet and defend yourself or to answer the accusations that might be made against you, it is not fair for you to be considered guilty in the eyes of your fellowmen or in the eyes of God, when you do not have an opportunity to be heard, and I say this Act of Assembly that we have on these statute books does that, as far as labor is concerned. It means that industry, or your corporate interests, can go into court and secure a temporary injunction against a labor union, or representatives of labor, without those men or their organizations having a right to be heard, and I say that is grossly unfair and grossly unjust under our democratic way of life.

I am sorry that some of my colleagues on the other side are not listening to me. I have tried to be friendly with them and I have tried to be fair and I say, gentlemen, I am speaking to you sincerely.

I have been in court representing these labor unions and I know it is unfair for an attorney representing a corporate interest to go into court and get an injunction against a labor union without that labor union having the right to be heard, and that is what is on our statute books.

I, therefore, on January 22, 1945, with the co-sponsorship of my close friend, Senator Dent, introduced Senate Bill No. 139, which was referred to the Committee on Judiciary General on the same day. That bill only provides, gentlemen, that industry can not secure an injunction, temporary in nature, against any labor union or against the representatives of labor, unless an opportunity is had by both parties to be heard and to cross-examine and to find out what the facts are as they actually exist, except where there is a sit-down strike or where the employes or the labor union are endeavoring to seize, hold, damage or destroy the property of the employer, and what could be more fair? How many of you men would want to be placed in the position where any person could go into court and get a temporary injunction against you, without you having an opportunity to present your side of the case or to have legal counsel represent your interests?

I therefore feel, in the interest of labor, in the interest of fair practice, and in the interest of justice, that this bill should pass. It has not been, to the best of my knowledge, considered by the Committee on Judiciary General, of which I am a member. I therefore have no other alternative than to present the following resolution and ask for its immediate adoption, which will discharge the Committee on Judiciary General from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 139.

RESOLUTION

TO DISCHARGE THE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY GENERAL FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 139

Mr. GOURLEY offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, April 30, 1945.

Resolved, That the Committee on Judiciary General be discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 139, entitled "An Act to further amend section four and to amend section nine of the act approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1198), entitled 'An act relating to employes and organizations thereof; defining labor disputes; prescribing the procedure by which and the conditions under which injunctions may be granted in such disputes and the scope thereof; declaring certain undertakings and promises between employers and employes contrary to public policy and void; prescribing the nature of proof necessary in actions arising out of labor disputes against persons or associations; prescribing the terms and conditions for bonds to be furnished prior to the issuance of injunctions; prescribing the procedure in case of appeal from granting injunctions; limiting the duration of temporary and permanent injunctions in case of labor disputes and providing for the payment of costs and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith,' by extending the provisions thereof to certain additional cases and allowing courts to issue restraining orders in certain cases," said bill having been in the hands of said Committee for a period of ten days and more, having been referred on January 22, 1945.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. GOURLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BARR and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—18

Barr,	Gourley,	Leader,	Rosenfeld,
Coleman,	Haluska,	Margie,	Ruth,
Cox,	Holland,	McCreesh,	Stiefel,
Dent,	Jaspan,	McGinnis,	Woodring,
DiSilvestro,	Klein,

NAYS—28

Becker,	Geltz,	Mallery,	Troutman,
Berger,	Heyburn,	Scarlett,	Tyler,
Blass,	Homsher,	Snowden,	Wagner,
Carr,	James,	Stevenson,	Walker,
Chapman,	Jones,	Tallman,	Wilson,
Crider,	Kephart,	Taylor,	Woodward,
Farrell,	Letzler,	Thomas,	Ealy, Presiding Officer

TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 302

Messrs. DENT and BARR offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, April 30, 1945.

Resolved, That the Committee on Elections be discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 302, entitled "An act to further amend sections one thousand six hundred five and one thousand eight hundred forty-three of the act approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333), entitled 'An act concerning elections, including general, municipal, special and primary elections, the nomination of candidates, primary and election expenses and election contests; creating and defining membership of county boards of elections; imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth, courts, county boards of elections, county commissioners; imposing penalties for violation of the act; and codifying, revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections,' permitting contributions to political campaigns by unincorporated associations," said bill having been in the hands of said Committee for a period of ten days and more, having been referred on February 12, 1945

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I know it is useless to carry on a long drawn-out argument in favor of any resolution to discharge a committee, because it seems that it is a time-honored custom that no committee shall be discharged from consideration of any particular bill, regardless of the merits of that bill. Of course, to those who believe that tradition is right at all times, whether or not it serves the common good, then no argument will persuade them to alter their course. However, those of us who have been here over a period of years have discovered, much to our sorrow, that once a committee gets a bill, the chairman becomes the absolute boss, the chairman becomes the absolute custodian of the particular bill that has been introduced. I say that that is a very bad practice.

At no time, in the few years that I have been here, has this practice been carried so far as it has during this session. Committees have had important legislation, but have not even met to organize until the opportune moment presented itself, when bills to the liking of the chairman or the administration have been presented. If that is to continue as the practice, then I would suggest that we change our method of procedure in the General Assembly, and, before we introduce a bill, hand it to some individual that is a chairman and say, "Do you like this legislation or don't you? If you do not like it, let us save the bother of printing expense and drop it into the waste basket." Why should we burden the taxpayers of Pennsylvania with the cost of printing legislation that may perhaps aid the common good, when, if some person does not like it, some individual does not like it, then the bill is a dead issue.

This particular bill that I ask the discharge of the committee's consideration from is a bill that would repeal the infamous Farrell bill, the bill that takes away from the laboring people of Pennsylvania their constitutional right to participate in a free election. When I say that, I say it advisedly, because when you say to a man who labors that he can not contribute towards the success of any campaign, because if he does you will send him to jail for two years, then you are in a sense restricting the political activity of that individual, in that he can not support the men who support the policies or support the program that in turn will support his way of life.

So this particular bill which has been on the books of Pennsylvania since its introduction by Senator Farrell, is a piece of legislation that is eminently unfair even to a casual observer. If Senator Farrell wanted to continue on with this particular measure of his, then he should have, at this session of the Legislature, or at the time of the introduction of his original bill, placed an amendment in that bill and said it would also be a misdemeanor, with a jail sentence attached, for any Republican politician to go out and pay any individual labor leader six or ten thousand dollars to swing a labor union from the course of its political philosophy. If you do not let them contribute, you ought to bar them from taking money, you ought to stop any individual from receiving any kind of money on election day, and give the minority party a chance for its white alley in an election contest, where they are up against the money bags of this great Commonwealth.

I say that because, Mr. President, to your knowledge, and I am sure it is to your knowledge—

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, may we have order?

Mr. DENT. That is all right, they need not hear it and they will not read it.

Mr. President, I only speak for the record, to let the record stand out in the years to come, so that people of this great Commonwealth will know that we are not fearful of the contributions made by anybody. We allow the great contributions made by the Mellons, we allow the great contributions made by the so-called Frick Estate, we allow the great contributions made by the Pews and the Grundys. They are limited, we know, to a certain figure, but they are not limited to how many members of their family can contribute, so in the end the sum total is the same.

But you say to the man who works, whose very life blood is being drawn from his body by the legislation that the Majority Party sponsors and passes, you say to him, "you can not contribute a dollar towards the campaign expenses of any particular individual or party that stands for the things that you believe in."

I say to you, gentlemen, that the time has come—you may get away with it for many years, because individuals who participated in elections have been in the past history of this great Commonwealth very susceptible to the charm of money, and so this particular party that is now the majority party has always managed to maintain its majority by the use of money. However, when the issues are clearly stated to the people, and when the newspapers of this great Commonwealth become free in every sense and say to the people, "these are the issues, these are the problems confronting you," I have no doubt but what the common people of this great Commonwealth will rise to the stature that they can attain and vote for those who would in their turn vote for them.

Mr. President, this is a gesture I know—it is only a gesture, there is not any hope of breaking down this time honored—time dishonored—tradition of the Senate that you can not discharge a committee chairman—not a committee, mind you—a committee chairman from the consideration of a bill. That is all we are asking for.

I remember, when we had control of the House of Representatives in 1935, we reduced the number of votes necessary for the discharge of a committee to five members less than the then minority Republican party had in the House of Representatives. We allowed them, with the use of their political caucus, to come upon the floor of the House and discharge any Democratic controlled committee from the consideration of any particular bill held by any chairman of any committee. We only ask the same consideration.

We do not introduce legislation just to see our names on bills We introduced this legislation because we believe it to be fundamentally right, and we are entitled to the privilege of voting yes or no upon that legislation here on the floor.

If there are too many bills introduced, then let us change the system, but let us not go on and continue year in and year out with the same old political philosophy that once a bill is introduced it is buried by the chairman, if he so desires, and so I ask the members of the Senate to again cast their vote, 32 to 18, to show how we stand.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, this is one of the fairest acts that I could think of. It does not permit unincorporated bodies to contribute to political campaign funds. As you all know, there is a law in Pennsylvania today that no corporation can contribute to a campaign fund. This act does not mention labor. I defy the other side to show me one clause in it that mentions labor; I defy anybody on the other side to show me where it mentions labor unions. This act was passed by this Legislature two years ago. It was then known as Bill 304—and you all know I specialize in good bills. This act prevents, as I said before, unincorporated bodies from contributing to campaign funds. The laws of Pennsylvania prevent any corporate body from contributing, and why should there not be a similar law covering unincorporated bodies? They are both alike.

Mr. President, I simply want to tell you that I regard this as a good, fair act. It has been passed by this Legislature and it is law.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not want to get into an argument with the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Farrell. He believes it to be a good act—and we know that he introduces all good bills, some of them dealing with the burial of bodies—cemetery bills; and others dealing with the burial of labor—anti-labor bills.

I understand his description, and it does not tally with ours, so we will not get into a discussion over that. But we do think it is an eminently unfair proposition that this particular bill I am calling your attention to rests in a committee of which he is chairman. The very argument that I made previously is now brought to your attention forcibly. Here is a gentleman who is chairman of a committee; he does not like a bill, so the bill is never considered nor discussed by the committee. That is the thing I am trying to correct. That is the very evil that is seeping into legislative bodies to an extent, Mr. President, that we are now in a position where the most powerful man in the Senate on any bill is the chairman of the committee. That is not Democracy at work; that is the worst type of Fascism that I can imagine. This particular bill, according to the gentleman from Philadelphia, is fair because it only deals the same fate out to unincorporated bodies as is now being dealt to corporate bodies.

I might ask the gentleman from Philadelphia if he at any time ever considered the fact that corporations, with their great unlimited reserves, with the great wealth attached to the membership of the corporations through officers can contribute untold sums of money by the simple procedure of having individuals contribute $2,000 each or $1,000 each.

You can not find a man who digs coal, you can not find a man who works in a mill, who can contribute $1,000—how could he be expected to?—but he can, by his little wee bit of a contribution, a mite, add up to a sum that will in itself represent a figure that may be influential in getting the particular kind of people to represent him that ought to represent him.

Why, Mr. President, after the figures read into the Legislative Journal of the Senate of Pennsylvania by that eminent scholar of political figures, Senator Barr on the contributions made to the Republican Party, how anybody could call that particular legislation introduced by Senator Farrell, passed, and signed by the Governor of this Commonwealth, fair legislation, is beyond any reasoning of mine.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I rise on a parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDING OFFICER The gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Woodward, will proceed.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, the lid having been off the Senate Chamber for an hour and a half, I am standing here now and saying I am suffering from battle fatigue and, having inspected the Democratic way of life, my parliamentary inquiry is, when do we take up consideration of the Calendar?

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. DENT and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—18

Barr,	Gourley,	Leader,	Rosenfeld,
Coleman,	Haluska,	Margie,	Ruth,
Cox,	Holland,	McCreesh,	Stiefel,
Dent,	Jaspan,	McGinnis,	Woodring,
DiSilvestro,	Klein,

NAYS—29

Chapman,	Kephart,	Taylor,	Woodward,

Crider, Letzler, Thomas, Ealy,
Farrell, Presiding Officer

So the question was determined in the negative.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I rise on a matter of personal privilege.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Berks will proceed.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I do not desire to discharge any committee, but I do ask for the sympathetic ear of the Committee on Municipal Government, because that committee has a bill, House Bill 647, which deals with the minimum standard of pay for poilcemen in third-class cities.

The policeman is an officer who is on duty twenty-four hours a day. He may be called out at any time, at his home, in bed, to go on duty, without extra pay There is no time and half time for policemen. We expect our servants of the law, our soldiers at home, to be upstanding men There was a time, which I remember, as well as you, when some of the policemen in some cities, when appointed to the force, they were given a club and they were told to go out and ring box 58 every hour, that is all they had to do.

But we have raised our qualifications for policemen, and now, when a man passes his civil service test, he must be skilled and prepared in the modern methods of handling crime, and yet we are giving them the lowest salary of any group in that class, and we are expecting from them a full twenty-four hours of service. I have known instances, when strikes have been called, where policemen were on duty as much as fourteen or sixteen hours out of every twenty-four, for six to seven months consecutively, without one cent of extra pay.

I know I have preached home rule about as much as any member of this Senate, and I believe in home rule. I believe in most instances salaries of local officers should be fixed by the local authorities, but with the policemen it is a different story. My mind goes back to the time when we set up the Liquor Control Board and the license system, and I recall very vividly at that time officials of third-class cities and other municipalities came to Harrisburg and asked that the license money be returned to the several municipalities for law enforcement. If you look at your records you will find that in 1943 and 1944, in those two years, the state turned back to forty-six third class cities a total of $10,600,000 in liquor license money, which was obtained, in the first place, under the guise of local law enforcement, but that money is used for everything else but local law enforcement, as many of us know who are around third class cities. Therefore the state has a direct interest in salaries of policemen in third class cities.

I am going back just briefly to an incident that I experienced in 1937 and 1938, when, as many of you know, we investigated conditions in Pennsylvania, and at that time I was thoroughly convinced, and I am today, that if we have a decently paid policeman we can do with a great many less than we have today, and have much better law enforcement, but if we pay our policemen so that at every Christmas or every birthday certain influential citizens drive by their beats and hand them a five dollar gift—it is just a gift, it is nothing large, but you and I know that any policeman is just as human as we are, and those kind friends who help out in emergencies by giving a five or ten dollar Christmas present, when they park at the wrong time or the wrong place, they just look another way, and there is no law enforcement.

I honestly feel it is the duty of the Legislature to insist that the cities of the third-class pay their policemen a living standard of wages, because we are contributing very largely, and have been, under the guise of returning liquor license fees for law enforcement, contributing to those cities for the very purpose of paying their policemen or law enforcement officers decent salaries.

Therefore I ask the members of the Committee on Municipal Government, which I understand will meet tomorrow morning, go to the committee meeting with a sympathetic interest in these men and report House Bill 647 to the floor. Thank you.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The remarks of the Senator from Berks will be spread on the record. The Committee on Municipal Government will take heed.

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I just looked at the bill on the Calendar, Senate Bill No. 410, and it is impossible to tell now just what the bill does. The bill has been amended so often and so many times that I think, for the good of the Senate, it would be well to send this bill back to the Committee on Appropriations.

MOTION THAT BILL BE RECOMMITTED

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 410, the bill just read, be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I simply want to express my deep appreciation to the splendid women who, together with fine, honorable men, collaborated in the preparation of Senate Bill No. 410. Of all the pictures in this beautiful chamber, the one that appeals to me the most is the one which I face when seated at my desk. It is not the picture of Abraham Lincoln that enthralls me; it is the picture of the little child expressing innocence, and I am reminded—I may not be able to quote the words exactly—but the sense is that unless ye become as a little child, ye can not enter the kingdom of heaven.

The only purpose of this bill is to protect little children whose parents may be dead or whose parents have separated, and it become necessary for a foster parent to care for them. The great majority of foster parents, thank God, treat foster children kindly and as little children should be treated, but now and then—but too often—little innocent children do get into the hands of people who do not treat them as little children should be treated. I have bent backwards; I have not only done that, but I have almost ruined this bill in trying to meet objections to it. There are some eight provisions made in this bill.

Section 2 provides that any child under sixteen years of age may be raised or cared for away from its parents, by, first, a certified child welfare organization; second, a public agency or institution authorized by law to receive and care for children; third, a duly appointed guardian of the person of such child; fourth, persons related to the child by blood, adoption or marriage; fifth, licensed foster family homes; sixth, persons receiving and maintaining a child or children for the purpose of adoption; seventh, a child caring agency which has been legally incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania before the effective date of this act; eighth, persons receiving and maintaining a child or children placed therein by the Municipal Court of Philadelphia, the Juvenile Court of Allegheny county or any other court of this Commonwealth.

The bill is fair, it does no one any harm, and I ask my colleagues to support the bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair calls attention to the fact that there is a motion before the Senate to recommit Senate Bill No. 410.

Mr. BARR. Under remarks, Mr. President, at this time I would like to agree with the gentleman from Blair, Senator Mallery, that he has been more than patient and has helped a great deal in putting amendments into this bill to meet the objections there were to the bill when it originally came to the floor of the Senate.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, tonight we have heard a lot of discussions in regard to raises for school teachers and money for this, that and the other, and here we have a bill that carries an appropriation with it. I do not like to be fighting against the Senate, but I do say to you that it is a waste of time to pass a bill of this kind. The people I am interested in do not object to your bill, but they do object to our foster homes being drawn into your bill. My foster homes that I am trying to protect do not ask or need an appropriation; they are getting along very nicely. The schools that I represent do not ask for appropriations. All we ask of you is to leave our foster homes out of the bill, which you have not done, and I ask you to do so.

This bill, the way it is drawn up now, you can not tell what the bill intends to do. It is all right for a Senator to get up on the floor and say that the bill is all right. You fellows can vote for the bill or against it, just as you wish. I am telling you what I am here for, to vote against the bill, and that is what I am going to do.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT SENATE BILL No. 410 WITHDRAWN

Mr. McCREESH. Mr President, I am going to withdraw my motion to recommit Senate Bill No. 410 and give you fellows a chance to pass this legislation, which my people do not want. They want to be left alone. They are getting along nicely with their foster homes in Philadelphia, and all we need is more foster homes. The social workers should get together and band together and try to help those little kiddies instead of putting in legislation to examine and inspect little homes where there are two or three little kiddies. I think it is a disgrace. There is a law on the statute books today which says that you can inspect foster homes. What else do you want to do? What is back of the bill?

Why appropriate money to put this thing through when you have no money to pay school teachers, you have no money for appropriations, and you agree that in the next year or two years you do not know how much money these social workers will need to inspect foster homes.

So, Mr. President, I withdraw my motion in order to give the Senate a chance, for which they have been wishing for a long time, to go into the foster homes and upset and annoy, which they know nothing about The social workers you are going to give positions to, with salaries, do not understand little kiddies. I withdraw my motion.

Mr. DENT. I withdraw my seconding of the motion.

And the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I rise to say a few words against this bill. The French philosopher, Voltaire once said that he would rather have Mephisto legislate and Gabriel execute than Gabriel legislate and Mephisto execute

The execution of this bill is placed in the hands of people who, in my opinion, lack compassion and understanding. One of the most sacred things in modern life is the adoption of children. This bill militates against that sacred practice, because it will place under the jurisdiction of certain elements the supervision of adoption of children. There are many other weak spots in the bill that will deter many people from kind deeds.

This bill has been amended on several occasions. I can not recognize the bill at present. In my opinion it is a Frankenstein of amendments. It is like the white dove that left in the morning and came back home at night time as a black raven, or vice versa.

I can not understand the bill. I believe it is only an empty shell at present, after all the amendments have been placed in it, and for that reason I call upon my colleagues to vote against it.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 1 (Sec. 1) page 5, lines 20 and 21 by striking out the words "or a gross premiums tax or liable to or" in line 20, and the words, "relieved from the capital stock or franchise tax" in line 21; Amend Section 1 (Sec. 1) page 6, lines 22 to 29 inclusive by striking out the words "nor shall this act apply to the proceeds of any" in line 22, all of lines 23 to 29 inclusive; Amend Section 1 (Sec. 1) page 7, line 1, by striking out the words "income tax"; Amend Section 1, (Sec. 1) page 7, line 18, by striking out the word "casualty"; Amend Section 1, (Sec. 1) page 8, lines 18 and 19, by striking out the word "or" in line 18, and the words "acquired with proceeds of money or property received" in line 19.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

(A voice vote having been taken the question was determined in the negative.)

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 122, on final passage, go over in its order in order that we may have time to study it.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, in view of the fact this is a House Bill, I ask that it go over in order, so that the members of the Senate may have time to examine the amendments. If the bill should be brought up for final reading tonight, I would naturally have to vote for it, because there are many good things in the bill but I request that it go over in order so that we will have time to read these amendments.

The PRESIDING OFFICER: Is there objection?

Mr. HEYBURN. I regret that I will have to object to the request of the gentleman from Allegheny. We are trying to adjourn this session sine die. There is a tremendous printing problem, and the larger we keep the Calendar the less chance there can be of the printer keeping up.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I do not think that is a reasonable answer or excuse, that the Calendar has to be printed. The bill does not have to be reprinted to show what my amendments were. I do not think any of the gentlemen over there can tell me at this moment the meaning of the amendments I offered to this bill. I just heard the gentleman from Delaware request two bills go over in order which deal with his county, Senate bills. I think he should be consistent.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There is objection to the bill going over in its order.

MOTION THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 122. Printer's No. 487, on final passage, go over in its order.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BARR and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—16

Barr,	Haluska,	Leader,	Rosenfeld,
Coleman,	Holland,	Margie,	Ruth,
Cox,	Jaspan,	McCreesh,	Stiefel,
Gourley,	Klein,	McGinnis,	Woodring.

Chapman,	Jones,	Taylor,	Ealy,
Crider,	Kephart,	Thomas,	Presiding Officer
Dent,	Letzler,	Troutman,

So the question was determied in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I want to warn the Senate that while part of this bill is all right, it relieves municipalities of taxes, but at the same time it also exempts annuities and shares of stock of corporations liable to gross premium tax and shares of stock of corporations are relieved of the capital stock tax. In other words, it is just repeating what has been going on here during this entire session, whittling down taxes on certain corporations so that the tax will have to be shifted back on to real estate in Pennsylvania.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—47

Barr,	Farrell,	Leader,	Tallman,
Becker,	Geltz,	Letzler,	Taylor,

NAYS—0

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I desire to explain my vote. You have heard the remarks of the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator McGinnis. The first amendment to this bill relieves municipalities of a certain tax, but the other amendment, as he said, is just another of a series of bills that have been introduced to put the burden of taxes back on the small home owner and the small taxpayer in the state, by adding these other amendments, but due to the fact that it does relieve the municipalities of some tax, that is my reason for voting "aye" for the bill.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 135, as follows:

An Act fixing the salaries of State Mine Inspectors under the jurisdiction of the Department of Mines in this Commonwealth and the expenses incident to this office

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 On and after the passage of this act the salary of mine inspectors of this Commonwealth shall remain at four thousand eight hundred dollars ($4,800.00) per annum together with the necessary expense incidental to the performance of their duties under the law which money shall be paid in the manner now provided by law provided however that upon the recommendation of the Secretary of Mines with the approval of the Governor the salary of any mine inspector who has continuously served as such for four years shall be increased to five thousand four hundred dollars ($5,400.00) per annum together with the necessary expense incidental to the performance of their duties under the law which money shall be paid in the manner now provided by law

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 3 Effective Date This act shall become effective on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-five

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Mercer, Mr. Thomas.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Mercer permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMAS. I will, Mr President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Cambria will proceed.

Mr. HALUSKA. Can the gentleman from Mercer inform this body as to the purpose of this bill.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. President, this is to permit the Secretary of Mines, with the approval of the Governor to increase the pay of mine inspectors from $4,800, I believe, to $5,400.

Mr. HALUSKA. Can the gentleman from Mercer tell me whether all mine inspectors must be qualified before they are permitted to take this job?

Mr. THOMAS . I think they are.

Mr. HALUSKA. Does the gentleman know of any mine inspectors who are not qualified?

Mr. THOMAS. Will the gentleman please repeat his question?

Mr. HALUSKA. Does the gentleman from Mercer know of any mine inspectors who are now employed as such but are not qualified to be mine inspectors?

Mr. THOMAS. No, I do not know of any.

Mr. HALUSKA. Then upon what basis would the gentleman from Mercer say that the Secretary of Mines might base his opinion—that is, according to the bill, upon his recommendation, certain men may be granted the increase and others not. Upon what basis will he make that recommendation?

Mr. THOMAS. That is up to the Department of Mines. I have no idea how he would do it.

Mr. HALUSKA. The gentleman from Mercer has no idea as to how he might make the recommendation to the Governor?

The gentleman from Mercer has admitted that every mine inspector must be qualified before he is given that title. Does the gentleman know of any who are not giving good service?

Mr. THOMAS. No sir.

Mr. HALUSKA. Then does the gentleman see any good reason why some might be recommended and others not?

Mr. THOMAS. I think that is very possible, some might be better than others.

Mr. HALUSKA. The gentleman, of course, realizes that this is not a laughing matter. Mr. President, I am getting no place fast with my interrogation.

I wish to point out that I am much in favor of the increase as granted in this bill, but I am very much opposed to the method employed. As I pointed out here last week, a mine inspector deals directly with the lives of countless thousands of men, he passes upon their safety of working conditions, and unless he is qualified certainly he has no right to be appointed a mine inspector.

Under our laws in this Commonwealth, once you are appointed and serve for four years, then once again you must requalify and take an examination, and then, if you are found to be fit and a good mining man, you are permanently appointed.

The bill nows reads that if you have worked for four years as a mine inspector, then, upon recommendation of the Secretary of Mines to the Governor, only then can you be granted the increase. I can not see the wisdom of it. A mine inspector is placed under the whip of a coal operator and if he should make a recommendation contrary to the wishes of the coal operator, he can be threatened and made to withdraw his objections as he might find them down in the bowels of the earth, and the coal operator can, if he might have a friendly Secretary of Mines, deny this man the right to be granted the increase. So all you might have done in this session for the coal miner, right now you are taking that away from him.

All afternoon and all evening members on the right side of the Senate have talked about political gestures, and here, for the first time, you are placing the mine inspector right on a political basis, where he must lick the boots, if you please, of the Secretary of Mines and of the Governor before he can be granted an increase in wages. I think you are making a serious mistake.

I will vote for this bill and ask my colleagues to vote for it, but I assure you it will come back to haunt you in a short time.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—47

Barr,	Farrell,	Leader,	Tallman,
Becker,	Geltz,	Letzler,	Taylor,

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 443, entitled:

An Act to regulate and improve the civil service of the cities of the second class in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania making violations of its provisions to be misdemeanors and providing penalties for violations thereof.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, after talking with several members on the Republican side today, I find that whoever talked to them about this bill in caucus misrepresented the bill, not only partially but entirely. He forgot to tell them about Section 21 in the bill, but before going to Section 21, Mr. President, I would like to give you a little history back of this bill.

Several months ago, when this bill was presented, as it is marked, by request, the Board of Judges in Allegheny County called a special meeting and at that time—and the Board of Judges, I might add, is Republicanly controlled—voted unanimously that they did not want this bill. They figure that they are a judicial branch and want to have nothing to do with the administrative end of the city government.

If, Mr. President, anyone takes the trouble to read the twenty-seven sections of the bill, he will find that whoever may be the mayor of the city of Pittsburgh will have to move up with the president judge of the Common Pleas Court. In other words, the mayor and the president judge will have to share chambers, because under the bill the mayor has no power at all in the city of Pittsburgh. The Common Pleas Court will not only appoint civil service commissioners, but the civil service commissioners can make no rule, no regulation, no change in the rules, unless they scat over to the president judge of the Common Pleas court and get his approval. You and I know that is not the function of a court. I would say that in my five years in Harrisburg this is the worst Frankenstein I have seen on our Calendar.

I want to call the attention of the members of the Senate to Section 21 of the bill. As I look over on the other side I see there are a lot of practical fellows there, as I am. I might even be called a Jacksonian Democrat and I believe in the spoils system—to the victor belongs the spoils. I believe the committeeman or committeewoman, whoever it may be, who goes out and works for his party, and his party wins, should be allowed to take a job, whether it be in the federal, city, county, borough or township government, wherever it may be.

Under Section 21 of this bill we have something new in the state of Pennsylvania; we have a Hatch act which says: "No person holding office or a position in the classified service—"and I may say that every one, with the exception, I think, of sixty-two employes of the city of Pittsburgh, they are the only one exempted, "No person holding office or a position in the classified service shall act as an officer of a political organization or take any active part in a political campaign or serve as a member of a committee of any such organization or circulate or seek signatures to any petition provided for by any primary or election laws or act as a worker at the polls in favor of or opposed to any candidate for election or nomination to a public office, whether federal, state, county or municipal."

Mr. President, I think that hits at the very seat of our form of government. As I said before, I do not think the men on the other side, and I am sure they do not, because the ones I have talked with today have told me, when this bill was discussed in their caucas today, that section was never pointed out or brought to their attention. Mr. President, I do not think that is being fair to your own members on your own side.

REQUEST THAT SENATE BILL 443 GO OVER IN ITS ORDER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill 443 go over in its order until tomorrow so that the gentleman who explained this bill to their caucus—I do not know who it was—may go back and tell the members on their side just what is contained in this bill.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, whenever I see a bill on the Calendar introduced by request I know that the parties back of that bill could not get anybody to introduce it, and finally they got a man to introduce it who was ashamed of it, because when I introduce a bill in this Senate, and I think, when any body else ordinarily introduces a bill, he signs it. Here is a bill introduced by request.

In the first place, we are in a war, and here is what we call a ripper bill, pure and simple. The city of Pittsburgh is governed by a Democratic mayor and Democratic council, nine members. For years and years before the Democrats got control of the city of Pittsburgh this present civil service bill was managed by Republicans, and I want to say to you, Mr. President, if there was ever a civil service bill managed well, the bill on the statute books of Pennsylvania today as applying to the city of Pittsburgh is managed perfectly.

I have previously contended on this floor that the only place I ever saw civil service work was in the postal department, and even there I have contended that the Pennsylvania Railroad and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and the Lehigh Valley Railroad have just as good employes as they have in the postal department. In other words, it is a matter of management and a matter of direction from the top. But here is a bill that takes civil service appointment away from the mayor, as approved by the council of the city of Pittsburgh, and hands it over to the Common Pleas judges.

I am sure that it will be argued here that is taking it out of politics. Well, Mr. President, I want to say to you that when you turn anything over to the judges of any Common Pleas Court, outside of their duties as Common Pleas judges, they are the slickest and slyest politicians in Pennsylvania, and to take the management of civil service in the city of Pittsburgh away from the hands where it is being administered now and turn it over to Common Pleas judges, who have all they can handle right now—I have always contended that Common Pleas judges should tend to their own business of being judges and not meddle in anything else. The moment you get judges getting out of their spheres as judges and meddling in other spheres of government, then you will have politics right up to the hilt.

Here is what this bill provides: "No member of the commission shall be a member of any local, state or national committee of a political party, or a member of a committee in any partisan political club or organization, or shall hold or be a candidate for any elective public office. No person shall be appointed as a commissioner who has held an elective public office or a position in a political party within the two years immediately preceding his appointment."

Mr. President, where would they find their men? What kind of a man would they find, Mr. President, that had never been a committeeman, never been engaged in politics, had never been interested in his government? I know who thy would find. They would find some docile, quiet, peaceful soul that did not know the world turns around, or some corporation executive who had a little time on the side.

Why this bill should be brought forth at this time, and why it should try to change the entire system in the city of Pittsburgh and hand it over to Common Pleas judges, I can not quite understand. I am glad, very glad, that Senator Walker, who is supposed to be the father of this bill, said that it was introduced by request, which convinces me he is ashamed of it.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There has been a request that Senate Bill No. 443 go over in order. Is there objection?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I object to this bill going over in order.

(The Senate was at ease.)

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, to those who did not participate in the rally that took place during the time the Senate was at ease, I want to advise the Republican Senators that in case they are under any misapprehension that they are bound by any caucus action, I want to advise them here and now that they are relieved from any caucus action. The convincing arguments from the other side have no doubt created a doubt in their minds, and if they want to vote in the negative, they may. Will the Clerk please call the roll?

RECESS

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER WITHDRAWN

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I withdraw my request that Senate Bill No. 443, on final passage, go over in its order.

O God as we call upon Thee we are mindful that Thou hast said "Righteousness exalteth a Nation but sin is a reproach to any people" and "Except the Lord build the house they labor in vain that build it."

Therefore we call on Thee to be present to bless these legislators as they came together for this last session to transact business for the good of this Commonwealth. Give them a keen sense of their responsibilities and enable them to fulfill them well. Have Thy way to rule and over rule for the good of all.

Also, our Father be pleased to bless this great Nation putting about it Thy protection and strength enabling it to take its rightful place in the world.

Our Father, for those who fight in our defense we ask Thy presence and protection. We ask for the speedy and successful end of the war and their safe return.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 1280 is the general appropriation bill which appropriates funds to every agency on Capitol Hill. Without this bill the agencies could not function, and we are putting some money into this bill for agencies which apparently do not function.

I am not going to offer a lot of amendments to the bill, I am not going to urge that the bill be defeated, nor am I going into my favorite subject, the mythical Post War Planning Commission. I have not found anyone yet in or out of the administration who would admit that we have a Post War Planning Commission, let alone admit that it operates, and if it operates, whether it operates well, but I want to call your attention to the appropriation of an awful lot of money, in excess of two hundred million dollars for the various functions of the State Government, also to an appropriation of two hundred fifty thousand dollars for the Post War Planning Commission, plus an additional fifty thousand dollars, which is three hundred thousand dollars for a function which no one will own up to and nobody will claim credit for, and no one apparently cares to find out what we ought to know about it.

I say to you, Mr. Speaker, that perhaps even upon the last day's session if the Post War Planning Commission would tell us where they are at and what they are doing we might justify our vote for this three hundred thousand dollars, but while the Members on this side of the House are used to it already, on the other side of the House I must say that you are going to be accused of having standards of the worst sort, reckless New Dealers, if you want to call it that, spending for nothing, as we have heard for many years, and here we are voting three hundred thousand dollars for this mythical Commission. Someone told me it was reported that they had gotten into the Erie Canal and were bound for the Hudson River. I hope when they reach the Hudson River someone will tell me who they actually are and then we can examine the good old mythical, hard to find, can't be found, Post War Planning Commission.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, like my friend on the other side, I do not intend to offer any amendments to the general appropriation bill nor to urge that there be any defeat of the bill. I expect to vote for the bill myself because I feel that to some extent we are overlooked in the House and we should have perhaps undertaken some of the jobs that we are talking about now at an earlier date. But there are two other features of this bill that I think are absolutely wrong.

You will notice that there is a provision in the bill that says that the Council of Defense, the Pennsylvania Council of Defense shall receive such moneys as the Governor shall allocate to it out of the Department of Military Affairs. I think that is terribly slipshod legislation. I think it is an abrogation of the powers of this House, and in line with what I said to you a week or so ago when I was talking on this subject, if we are to have a Council of Defense, if there is a function for them in the State, then the Legislature ought to appraise how much money they think they should have and should make that appropriation. I remember when the budget came in here it appropriated fifty thousand dollars for the Joint State Government Commission. That was raised in the House to one hundred thousand dollars, and I have been informed that there is a possibility it will be raised again in the Senate to one hundred fifty thousand dollars. There we have an agency to which we assign a lot of tasks; there we have an agency that we have tried to set up to advise the Members of the House, but we have a hard time getting the necessary money to set up the kind of agency it should be, and it amounts almost to a travesty when other agencies receive appropriations without limit to the amount that they should have.

I understand that the Council of Defense is embarking on some new features beyond the exact idea of National Defense, and yet we are giving them a blank check.

The other feature in the bill to which I object is this, my two good Democratic friends way over on the side, from Philadelphia might well profit by just listening for a moment or two. If you will notice in the general appropriation bill you will find that every item of expenditure by the House and by the Senate is very carefully itemized. Every Secretary's salary, every bit of expenditure for postage or for getting up the indexes to our history or anything else that you can think of that the House and Senate have to do are most carefully itemized to the last point, and yet we have given $12,000,000 to this Department, and $15,000,000 to that Department without any itemization at all as to how the money is to be expended.

I notice too we magnanimously gave five hundred dollars more to the Majority Leader and I think to the Minority Leader for their contingent fund. Their contingent fund is so extensive that I think it is $1,000 a piece. Now, I have been both Majority and Minority Leader in this House and I have had a chance to see the work that these men have to do, and I want to say to you that you gentlemen have no conception of the work required by the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader in a body of this kind. They do not have adequate help, they do not have sufficient assistance, and I think it is a shame that a body like this, dealing with hundreds of millions of dollars, dealing with appropriations that mean so much to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and dealing with legislation in which everybody has a stake that we should be so niggardly with our own group and yet scatter our money here and there with open hand all over the hill as far the Departments are concerned. I hope when another session rolls around that you men who are here and particularly you new men who are coming along in this body, that you are going to do something about it, that we are going to bear in mind that there is a necessity that the machinery of this House has better support than it has today and that it is of vital importance to both parties and to the people of Pennsylvania that the leaders in this House have adequate money. The Appropriations Committee gets the magnificent sum of twelve thousand dollars for the biennium, seven thousand dollars during the time they are in session and five thousand dollars in the interim—if I am wrong the gentleman from Lancaster can correct me—five thousand dollars for the session—that's worse than I thought it was—and seven thousand dollars for the interim.

Then when we assemble here in January we do not have any actual information with reference to the needs of the Departments. You have no source to which you can go except either the budget office or to some of the departments to find out what the actual operational needs are. There are many of us who have felt for a great many years that we ought to have some kind of an agency that belongs to the Legislature, not the executive branch. I am not impugning the integrity of the executive department, but I have stood up here on the floor many a time in the past and bowed to the administration as to estimates on the income. I have battled with them many times on their estimates of the amount of money it would take to run the Departments. I do not impugn their motives, but at the time I thought they were wrong, and I tell you, I can go back in the records of this House and show you that the estimates made by the legislative branch were correct and those made by the executive branch were incorrect. We ought to have more money, we ought to have more of an appropriation, we ought to have a full time organization and it ought to be able to tell us when we get back to the session just exactly what the needs are, instead of appropriating a blank check. I think if we can appropriate lump sums of money to the Departments we ought to institute a program in the House and Senate by which we appropriate a fund under the control of the Speaker and the President pro tempore of the Senate so that we may allocate sums ourselves as we see the need for them during the session so that our Speaker and officers may have proper assistance and have a fund to do their job properly.

Mr. GRANT. Mr. Speaker, when I was a young boy in Delaware County I never believed that I would be in accord with anything that Mr. Turner said, but I want to go on record as being heartily in accord with everything he said just prior to my taking this microphone.

I want further to say that this is a most disgraceful and distasteful session. When I came to this house I had the impression that we had three branches of the government, the Legislative, the Executive and the Judicial, but I find that in this session of the Legislature we only have the Executive, and that Executive in order to carry out its program has to get the green light before the Legislature, and that is all we have done at this session.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Delaware and the gentleman from Berks become more and more naive the older they grow. They have been a long time in this Legislature to find out that it is the Departments that run the show, that the Legislature, when the Department heads and their bureau chiefs speak, crawls under the table. Now, it seems to me strange that after all his battling the gentleman from Delaware has not accepted the sovereignty of the Departments. In one way this is a reversal of conditions by means of which these blank appropriations were granted and conforms to what was once charged was a New Deal policy. As I recall the newspaper castigations and the Congressional castigations of the New Deal, or what was called the New Deal, was originally denounced because it emphasized the power of the executive, because it emphasized the power of Departments, because it emphasized the power of bureaus and because worst of all it voted blank checks. Now, if that was the fault and the most glaring New Deal fault we know, these appropriation bills clasp that fault to our legislative bosom and call it our own.

I am opposed to voting on this bill at this time. I am not asking the Members on this side of the House to vote against this bill. As a matter of protest I personally propose to vote against the bill because I say to you that this bill in the possession of this House is the only weapon you have to prevent the premature folding up upon the part of this Legislature. Send this bill over to the Senate and you do not have to have a Teachers' Salary Bill; send this bill over to the Senate and you do not have to have any Labor legislation; send this bill over to the Senate and in three legislative days this Assembly can be adjourned with the administration having exactly what it set out to do in the beginning. So I would advise those on the other side, if such there be, who are interested in school legislation, who are interested in labor legislation, who are interested in any of the measures that have passed this House and are now in the custody of the Senate, to take steps to delay voting on the general appropriation bill at this time.

Because that is my position I personally propose to vote against the bill. You can place all your measures into the hands of the Senate and then mark time in a legislative way subject to their will if you want to. I say it is bad policy, and I warn those who are interested in particular measures that they would be wiser if they took steps to delay action on the general appropriation bill until we find out in what direction the wind is blowing concerning their particular measures over in the Senate.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar, and I ask for a roll call.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise and ask that the Members vote down this motion.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Majority Floor Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lehigh permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, does the Majority Floor Leader have any other reason to support his position other than the general admonition that "Papa knows best"?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I certainly have, Mr. Speaker, and I am glad to know now that I am a father. There have been a great many confessions during this session and I did not know just what role I played until this moment.

Answering the gentleman from Cambria, I certainly do have a reason, Mr. Speaker. This general appropriation bill has been before the Committee on Appropriations practically since the start of the session. The Members of that Committee I know have worked very diligently on the provisions contained in this legislation. They have heard all the departments. There have been increases, there have been cuts in appropriations to the various Bureaus and Departments. I know that they have spent many hours working on this legislation. I feel that certainly every opportunity has been granted to everyone who participates in the appropriations contained in this bill. We have left this bill on the calendar over the week end. I believe it was brought out a week ago, and I certainly feel that there should be no further delay and that we have every justifiable reason to act on this bill at this time.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Lehigh understand me to say that my reason for asking for postponement was because I am questioning the integrity of the work done by the Committee.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. It is not, Mr. Speaker, but the gentleman from Cambria inquired if I could substantiate my reasoning and my thinking for asking to vote down the motion, and I have tried to do that, feeling that there has been time and effort given to this piece of legislation and that there should be no further delay.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman from Lehigh whether the urgency to pass this bill by any chance bears any relation to the telegram that was sent to the Members of the General Assembly saying that someone,—I would like to read a telegram with which the Members are all familiar:

> Remain in session until adjournment sine die has been definitely and unalterably reinstated.

I would like to ask whether the sending of this telegram and the present urgency of voting on this bill have any relations?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I would say not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Can the gentleman from Lehigh give this House any assurance as to what action on pending legislation, when and of what sort will be taken by the other branch of the General Assembly once they have this bill in their hands?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman is well acquainted with legislative procedure, and I would inform him that I cannot definitely state what the Senate is about to do and act upon, but I would remind the gentleman that this side of the House must vote on this sine die resolution before we can close up the business of this House and the Legislature of Pennsylvania.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Andrews and Mr. Cohen and were as follows:

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to state for the benefit of the Members on this side of the House that I am voting "no" on this bill simply as a personal protest, but I would not wish the party to take a position of opposition to the bill at this time, so I hope that a sufficient number of Democrats on this side of the House will vote for the bill to put it over for fear that it lacks one vote, and at least I hope they get that.

NOT VOTING—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. LICHTENWALTER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

I would just like to make one brief comment. If it be any consolation to the Members on the other side that have joined with us in voting for this bill, they were also voting for the appropriation to the Auditor General and the State Treasurer, and I understand that the Auditor General has received a nice gift of fifty thousand dollars increase in his appropriation. I just want to make that comment, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Might I be permitted once again to assure the gentleman from Lehigh that I was commending the discretion of the Appropriations Committee in a number of respects, and that the request for delay would in no way have imperilled the splendid appropriation that they gave to the Auditor General.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 194, as follows:

An Act to further amend section twenty of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Workmen's Compensation for the purpose of further study and possible amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to know how we could make any sense out of Senate Bill 718.

QUESTION ON INFORMATION

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, are we to understand that prior to the motion by the gentleman from Elk the bill has had first reading?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. That is correct.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 658, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the fifth day of December one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six (1937 P. L. 2897) entitled "An act establishing a system of unemployment compensation to be administered by the Department of Labor and Industry and its existing and newly created agencies with personnel (with certain exceptions) selected on a civil service basis requiring employers to keep records and make reports and certain employers to pay contributions based on payrolls to provide moneys for the payment of compensation to certain unemployed persons providing procedure and administrative details for determination payment and collection of such contributions and the payment of such compensation providing for cooperation with the Federal Government and its agencies creating certain special funds in the custody of the State Treasurer and prescribing penalties" changing the provisions thereof and the rights obligations and procedure thereunder

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I don't think we should pass bills that people can't read. I think we should amend them first.

Mr. Speaker, I continually fought this last week of the session of the Legislature, where we have continually fought and quarreled, about passing bills that nobody knows anything about. The bills themselves are not clear; nobody can read them. I certainly do not know why we should pass these bills on first reading. Why don't we recommit them, have them printed in proper form and act upon them in the House of Representatives. What is the hurry? Where is everybody going? My friends I just want to say to you that if you are going to save democracy, free speech, let's be fair.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. To what question is the gentleman from Westmoreland now addressing himself?

Mr. LOVETT. I would like to know if the bill has passed first reading?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The bill has passed first reading. It has been explained to the Chair that the amendments made to this bill are not clear and the bill is to be recommitted and put into such shape that even the Chair will understand it.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I move to recommit the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has already received that motion.

Mr. LOVETT. Not on this bill, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland yield to the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg, so that he may move to send the bill back to the committee?

Mr. LOVETT. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SORG. I do not wish to make such a motion, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair is in error. The gentleman from Elk is not considering a motion to send the bill back to the committee.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parlimentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, is there anything in order but a vote on the motion on the floor now?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. There is no motion before the House.

Mr. COHEN. Is there any motion in order other than a motion to recommit?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair would inform the gentleman that there is a wide range of motions in which the gentleman from Philadelphia would be privileged to indulge himself, but doubts whether it is the duty of the Chair to inform the gentleman from Philadelphia concerning the range of motions that he is at liberty to present. Does the gentleman have a motion?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I have a lot of motions.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia yield to the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg?

Mr. COHEN. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. SORG. Senate Bill No. 658, Printer's No. 509, has been passed on first reading?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. It has passed first reading.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Workmen's Compensation for the purpose of further study and possible amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. COHEN. Did I not hear a moment ago that a motion was made by the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg, and seconded by the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett? Is a second motion in order after another motion was made?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. If there is an error the Chair will correct it.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, do we have any assurance from the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg, that the scramble will now be unscrambled?

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. DAVID P. REESE, Jr. asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Workmen's Compensation to meet during the session of the House.

THE SPEAKER (Ira T. Fiss) IN THE CHAIR

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, for presiding.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Chudoff, explain just what the amendments do to this bill?

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, this bill is one of a series of Senate Bills which change the date that registration closes in all the counties of the Commonwealth, before a municipal election, from thirty-five days to fifty days.

In view of the fact that Philadelphia has a separate and distinct Registration Commission, and in view of the fact that these bills, known as the Mallery Bills, have been introduced at the direction of the County Commissioners Association of Pennsylvania, which in all of the counties of the Commonwealth except Philadelphia have set up Registration Commissions, and since Philadelphia has a separate and distinct Registration Commission and has a different problem, this bill will take out the fifty days and restore it to thirty-five days under the amendments to the bill.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman is agreeable I ask that this bill be passed over.

Mr. CHUDOFF. That is agreeable, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, on Thursday morning the Mines and Mining Committee met. We had an agreement that there would be a meeting called of the Committee on Mines and Mining this afternoon, some time before the end of the session, and it was my full intention to carry out that agreement. However, there are some amendments being prepared for several bills that have not been presented to me yet, so the situation is in pretty bad shape. I would like to have the meeting tomorrow morning at 10:30.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 501.

An Act to further amend the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1216) entitled "An act to define real estate brokers and real estate salesmen and providing for the licensing regulation and supervision of resident and nonresident real estate brokers and real estate salesmen and their business" by further defining real estate brokers and real estate salesmen and providing for the licensing regulation and supervision of resident and nonresident real brokers and real estate salesmen and their business

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 1, page 2, line 24, by inserting after the word "brokers" the following: "or upon application proof of experience equivalent thereto"; also on page 4, line 24, by inserting after the word "prescribe" the following: "Provided That the commission may make a special dispensation or exception because of religious scruples of applicants as to the day of the week upon which the examination shall be held."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. MODELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the Majority Leader what effect these amendments inserted by the Senate have on this particular bill.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. Mr. Speaker, as I understand it, the amendments placed in it by the Senate pertain to the question which requires them to be under the supervision of a duly licensed real estate broker, and the amendments inserted by the Senate say "or the equivalent in point of service."

There is an amendment here stating that if an examination is to be taken at a certain time when a person's religious scruples prevent him from appearing to take the examination at that particular time, then a special dispensation can be granted and they can be permitted to take it at another time.

On the question recurring.

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

L. 587) entitled as amended "An act to protect the public health by regulating the manufacture preparation handling storage sale transportation and possession of meat and meat-food products prescribing the powers and duties of the Department of Agriculture incidental thereto" including poultry within the provisions of the act providing for the licensing of establishments making possession of unwholesome meat or meat-food products prima facie evidence of intention to sell and prescribing additional penalties

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, what is the effect of this amendment?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I answer that?

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

Mr. TURNER. The effect of the amendment is to strike out the provision which states that more cattle could not be sold—I should say slaughtered instead of sold. SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED SENATE BILLS NONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has non-concurred in the amendments made by the House of Representatives to Senate Bills numbered and entitled as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 46.

An Act to further amend sections two and thirty-eight of the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 487), entitled "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in boroughs, towns, and townships as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries; prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors; requiring the county commissioners of the various counties to act as a registration commission therefor; and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens, parties, political bodies, registration commissions, commissioners, registrars, inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions, county election boards, election officers, municipal officers, departments and bureaus, police officers, courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, county commissioners, peace officers, county treasurers, county controllers, registrars of vital statistics, certain public utility corporations, real estate brokers, rental agents, and boards of school directors and imposing penalties" by further regulating and changing the provisions of the act relating to cancellation of registration upon failure to vote within two years

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House recede from its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate.

On the question,

Will the House recede from its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Elk explain what he recedes from.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, this is one of a series of bills pertaining to the cancellation of veterans' registration after failure to vote for two years. This particular amendment was striken out by the House committee itself, but in striking out the amendments previously inserted they inadvertantly left in one word "suspension" instead of "cancellation," and it is for that reason I move that we recede from our action.

On the question recurring,

Will the House recede from its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

SENATE

TUESDAY, MAY 1, 1945.

The Senate met at 3:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern War Time. The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor John C. Bell, Jr.) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. EDWIN S. WALLACE, D.D., offered the following prayer:

God of the nations, who holdeth in Thy hand the life and destiny of all men, we pray that America may acknowledge Thy sovereignty by obedience to Thy law of righteousness. Thou hast been favorable to us; may we be faithful to Thee. In all our dealings with each other, in all our relations with other nations and peoples may we be just and generous, for in so doing we will be like Thee.

For the progress of our armed forces towards victory on all fronts we give sincere thanks, and pray for a continuance thereof until all enemies shall be overcome. We so pray because of our faith in the justice of our cause and our hope for a peaceful world wherein dwelleth righteousness.

Be Thou, O God, in the councils of the nations now planning for a post-war world order. Guide the council so that their decisions shall be in accord with the decrees of God. We know that unless they are all their planning will be futile.

We pray that in all the deliberations and enactments of this Senate merely personal and local interests may give place to those that are for the welfare of all the people.

We thus pray in the name and for the sake of Him who came to this world to help and save all men. Amen.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. COX asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. COX. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Education, the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Homsher.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lancaster permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. HOMSHER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. COX. Will the gentleman tell me if the Senate Committee on Education, in its meeting today considered House Bill 612, which provides for sick leave for school teachers of Pennsylvania?

Mr. HOMSHER. I did.

Mr. COX. What action did the committee take?

Mr. HOMSHER. The action of the committee was to the effect that the bill should not be reported out.

Mr. COX. I would like to point out to the Senate that this bill, which is extremely important to our educational system, passed the House on March 19 by a vote of 203 to 3. Once again there is demonstrated the growing liberalism of the House as contrasted with the deadly conservatism of the Senate.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, under date of February 6 Senate Bill 269 was introduced which proposed to amend Section 1, Article 9 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, covering the provision on taxes, adding the following:

"Uniformity shall not be required in the case of income, gift and inheritance taxes, which may be graded or graduated and provide for exemption, but all such taxes shall be levied and collected under general laws."

Up to the present, it is said to be the interpretation of the State Supreme Court that under the Constitution a graded income, gift or inheritance tax, with exemptions for low income groups, can not legally be enacted. To accomplish this purpose, the Constitution would have to be amended.

The Constitution should be amended for these reasons:

1. The General Assembly should be free to enact or permit the state's political sub-divisions to enact whatever forms of taxation it deems essential for the raising of revenue necessary to conduct the governmental business.

2. Income taxation, with adequate exemption to allow a decent standard of living, and graded to spread the cost of government fairly over the population, is generally accepted as a sound form of taxation.

3. Pennsylvania's tax structure, according to the Joint State Government Commission, is ripe for decided improvement. Here is what the Commission says:

> "The revenue yield from normal taxes is not sufficient to meet the present operating needs of the Commonwealth. This situation was met in the depression years of 1935 and 1936 by the imposition of emergency taxes and emergency rates superimposed upon normal taxes. While the increase in revenue has been very great, there are many inequities which should be considered in the revision of the tax structure."

It is not necessary at this time to go into a full discussion of the Pennsylvania tax situation to show that the General Assembly should be enabled to consider a proper income tax to strengthen that structure.

We all recognize that this structure is based on a revenue act of 1889, when real estate was depended on to bear the load. Those were the horse and buggy days. Today's means of transportation are far different, faster, and more expensive.

Costs of government have steadily gone up to meet new conditions. Real estate is no longer the main source of value and cannot be the principal source of revenue. We have to move forward.

Faced with the extraordinary and tremendous changes bound to develop out of the war, such as the permanence of recently established industrial plants, international trade demands and consequent shifting of consumer buying power in the postwar years, the General Assembly should have the chance to distribute taxes so they encourage business, build up industry and provide increased good living among the people of our Commonwealth.

Income tax, with adequate exemption and graded up in line with benefits gathered through private enterprise from the growth and progress of our Commonwealth, should be available in whatever extent the General Assembly finds wise to serve the public welfare.

Further, Mr. President, the Governor of the state, in not approving House Bill 568 as passed by the House, said one of the reasons was that he did not want to impose on future administrations the enormous load that would have to be raised by taxes for the support of our school system.

If Senate Bill 269 was passed in this session and passed in the next session of the General Assembly, it could be voted upon in 1947 at the polls, and if the people of Pennsylvania agreed to a graduated income tax, this problem of support of schools would be solved. That is one reason why we who are members of the 1945 Senate should see to it at once that this bill is reported from committee, passed by both the Senate and the House, and placed in position to pass at the next session in 1947 or a special session, if one be called.

This is one of the solutions that can be used to relieve the now over burdened real estate owner, the small home owner, and also to encourage in the post war period the building of homes, for as it is today, when a man builds a home in Pennsylvania he is penalized for building this home; when he becomes a good citizen by becoming a home owner, he is treated like a criminal by placing a fine on him that he has to carry from year to year.

Therefore, Mr. President, I feel that in addition to solving the school problem, this is also one method of solving the tax situation in Philadelphia, where today they are using a tax which is very unfair, a salary tax.

Therefore Mr. President, I offer the following resolution and ask for its immediate adoption.

TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 269

Mr. HOLLAND offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, May 30, 1945.

Whereas, Senate Bill No. 269, entitled "A joint resolution proposing an amendment to section one, article nine, of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania," was referred to the Committee on Constitutional Changes in the Senate on February 6, 1945, and has not been acted upon by said committee; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Committee on Constitutional Changes is hereby discharged from further consideration of Senate Bill No. 269, entitled "A joint resolution proposing an amendment to section one, article nine, of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania."

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, this is another one of those resolutions to discharge a committee, and its sponsor well knows it can not be successful.

It seems a shame, Mr. President, to use up hours of the time of this Senate in this manner, when we are trying to wind up the session. There are members of this Senate who are in favor of this bill the gentleman talks about, I suppose, but the story is that a majority of the members on the committee are not in favor of it.

Nevertheless, Mr. President, it seems so silly to use up all the time being used in the attempted discharge of these committees, when it has not been done for generations and will not be done for generations to come.

I ask my colleagues to vote against the resolution.

Mr. HOLLAND. The Majority Leader always sees fit, when a resolution is introduced to discharge a committee, to point to a tradition of the Senate, that in the Senate, due to tradition, no committee has ever been discharged.

I want to draw to the attention of the Majority Leader the fact that for years it was a tradition of this Senate for committees not to meet and bills were decided upon in the back rooms and in the bed rooms and the parlor suites of the hotels. I want to draw to the attention of the Senate that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, in the last session of the Legislature, had a bill to report and he noticed a little note on the bill and it said, "this is a bad bill; keep it in committee." He did not know who put the note on the bill, neither did the chairman.

Therefore, Mr. President, this is the only parliamentary procedure that is given to us, under parliamentary law, to discharge a committee when we can not have an opportunity to vote for a bill on the floor of this Senate. We are trying to get away from the tradition which has been practiced in this Senate for years by the Republican Majority, because for years we all know committees were governed and controlled by certain interests and the people never did get a bill out that benefited the common man of Pennsylvania. This tradition is a bad tradition, and not one in keeping with the state where the cradle of liberty was founded, and we should not live up to a tradition which is bad and not for the benefit of the people of Pennsylvania.

On the question,

Will the Senate adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HOLLAND and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—18

Barr,	Gourley,	Leader,	Rosenfeld,
Coleman,	Haluska,	Margie,	Ruth,
Cox,	Holland,	McCreesh,	Stiefel,
Dent,	Jaspan,	McGinnis,	Woodring,

HITLER'S DEATH ANNOUNCED

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has just been handed the following press release, in which the Senators will be interested: "The Hamburg Radio said Hitler died this afternoon."

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, it is a sad commentary on a man's life, when his death gives joy to so many people.
